SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

INTRODUCTION

At times material to this Superseding Indictment:

1. There existed a radical Islamic fundamentalist movement dedicated to the establishment of a pure Islamic state (“Caliphate”) governed by strict Islamic law (“Sharia”). Followers and supporters of this movement adhered to a radical Salafist ideology that encouraged and promoted “violent jihad” to be waged by “mujahideen” using physical force and violence to oppose governments, institutions, and individuals that did not share their view of Islam.

2. As used in this Superseding Indictment, the terms “violent jihad” or “jihad” include planning, preparing for, and engaging in, acts of physical violence, including murder, maiming, kidnapping, and hostage-taking. The term “mujahideen” means warriors engaged in violent jihad.

VIOLENT JIHAD GROUPS

3. Groups espousing this radical Salafist ideology included the Islamic Group of Egypt, a/k/a “Gama’a al-Islamiyya,” a/k/a “IG,” a/k/a “AGAI;” the Egyptian Islamic Jihad, a/k/a “Islamic Jihad,” a/k/a “al-Jihad,” a/k/a “EIJ;” al-Qaeda; and violent jihad groups in other countries, including Afghanistan, Algeria, Bosnia, Chechnya, Lebanon, Libya, and Somalia. These groups engaged in acts of physical violence, including murder, maiming, kidnapping, and hostage-taking in waging violent jihad.

VIOLENT JIHAD SUPPORT CELLS

4. The physical violence committed by these jihad groups was supported and facilitated by a network of smaller groups or cells operating within the United States and in other countries, including Canada, Austria, Denmark, Italy, and the United Kingdom. These support cells engaged in, among other things, propaganda, fund-raising, recruiting personnel, and providing other physical assets necessary to wage violent jihad.

NORTH AMERICAN SUPPORT CELL

5. The defendants, along with other individuals, operated and participated in a North American support cell that sent money, physical assets, and mujahideen recruits to overseas conflicts for the purpose of fighting violent jihad. This North American support cell supported and coordinated with other support networks and mujahideen groups waging violent jihad. The defendants followed and supported Sheikh Omar Abdel Rahman, an influential and high-ranking member of certain violent jihad groups.

6. Mohamed Zaky, a/k/a “Abu Omar” (hereinafter “Zaky”), an unindicted coconspirator, was also a follower and supporter of Sheikh Omar Abdel Rahman. In the early 1990's, Zaky founded and operated within the United States, and elsewhere, at least three Islamic organizations, the Islamic Center of the Americas, Save Bosnia Now, and the American Worldwide Relief Organization. Until his death in 1995, Zaky used these organizations to promote violent jihad.

7. KIFAH WAEL JAYYOUSI, a/k/a “Abu Mohamed” (hereinafter “JAYYOUSI”), while a resident of San Diego, California, founded the American Islamic Group, and after Zaky died, operated the American Worldwide Relief Organization. Through the American Islamic Group, JAYYOUSI published The Islam Report, a newsletter that promoted violent jihad as a religious obligation, delivered information on violence committed by mujahideen, and solicited donations to support mujahideen operations and mujahideen families. JAYYOUSI actively recruited mujahideen fighters and raised funds for violent jihad.

8. ADHAM AMIN HASSOUN a/k/a “Abu Sayyaf” (hereinafter “HASSOUN”), a resident of Broward County, Florida, was the East Coast representative of the American Islamic Group and the American Worldwide Relief Organization. HASSOUN assisted in distributing

The Islam Report and fund-raising for violent jihad on behalf of the American Worldwide Relief Organization. HASSOUN also served as the North American distributor of Nida'ul Islam, an Islamic magazine promoting violent jihad. HASSOUN worked with JAYYOUSI and others in actively recruiting mujahideen fighters and raising funds for violent jihad.

9. KASSEM DAHER, a/k/a "Abu Zurr" (hereinafter "DAHER"), resided in LeDuc, Canada. DAHER was affiliated with the Canadian Islamic Association, and communicated and coordinated with mujahideen field commanders and violent jihad leaders overseas. DAHER worked with JAYYOUSI, HASSOUN, and others in actively recruiting mujahideen fighters and raising funds for violent jihad.

10. MOHAMED HESHAM YOUSSEF, a/k/a "Abu Turab" (hereinafter "YOUSSEF"), resided in Broward County, Florida, and elsewhere. YOUSSEF was recruited by the North American support cell to participate in violent jihad, and traveled overseas for that purpose.

11. JOSE PADILLA, a/k/a "Ibrahim," a/k/a "Abu Abdullah the Puerto Rican," a/k/a "Abu Abdullah Al Mujahir" (hereinafter "PADILLA"), resided in Broward County, Florida, and elsewhere. PADILLA was recruited by the North American support cell to participate in violent jihad, and traveled overseas for that purpose.

COUNT 1

(Conspiracy to Murder, Kidnap, and Maim Persons in a Foreign Country)

Paragraphs 1 through 11 of this Superseding Indictment are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

12. Beginning at a time uncertain, but no later than in or about October 1993, and continuing until on or about November 1, 2001, in Broward County, in the Southern District of Florida, and elsewhere, the defendants,

ADHAM AMIN HASSOUN,
a/k/a "Abu Sayyaf," MOHAMED HESHAM YOUSSEF,
a/k/a "Abu Turab," KIFAH WAEEL JAYYOUSI,
a/k/a "Abu Mohamed," KASSEM DAHER,
a/k/a "Abu Zurr," and
JOSE PADILLA,
a/k/a "Ibrahim,"
a/k/a "Abu Abdullah the Puerto Rican," a/k/a "Abu Abdullah Al Mujahir,"

at least one of whom having been within the jurisdiction of the United States, did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with others, known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit at any place outside the United States, acts that would constitute murder, that is, the unlawful killing of human beings with malice aforethought, kidnapping, and maiming if committed in the special maritime and territorial jurisdiction of the United States, and did commit one or more acts within the jurisdiction of the United States, to effect the purpose and object of the conspiracy.

PURPOSE AND OBJECT OF THE CONSPIRACY

13. It was a purpose and object of the conspiracy to advance violent jihad, including supporting, and participating in, armed confrontations in specific locations outside the United States, and committing acts of murder, kidnapping, and maiming, for the purpose of opposing existing governments and civilian factions and establishing Islamic states under Sharia.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

14. The manner and means by which the defendants and their coconspirators sought to accomplish the purpose and object of the conspiracy included the following:

a. Members of the conspiracy would and did recruit, and attempt to recruit, mujahideen warriors who would engage in violent jihad.

b. Members of the conspiracy would and did solicit and raise monies to support and train mujahideen warriors who would engage in violent jihad.

c. Members of the conspiracy would and did transfer monies from places inside the United States to places outside the United States to support violent jihad.

d. Members of the conspiracy would and did provide communications equipment and other physical assets to individuals and groups engaged in violent jihad.

e. Members of the conspiracy would and did publish statements advocating violent jihad to encourage, induce, and persuade others to support and engage in violent jihad.

f. Members of the conspiracy would and did seek support and training to serve as mujahideen warriors who would engage in violent jihad.

g. Members of the conspiracy would and did use humanitarian, educational, and other non-governmental organizations to cover, conceal, and disguise their support of violent jihad.

h. Members of the conspiracy would and did utilize codes and other techniques to cover, conceal, and disguise their true identities and activities.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect its purpose and object, at least one of the coconspirators committed, or caused to be committed, at least one of the following overt acts within the United States, in the Southern District of Florida, and elsewhere:

15. In or about October 1993, JAYYOUSI opened a bank account in the name of the “Islamic Group.”

16. On or about June 13, 1994, HASSOUN caused to be issued a $1,000 check to JAYYOUSI with the memo line stating, “support for the person.”

17. On or about February 4, 1995, JAYYOUSI and DAHER discussed setting up a for-profit business to fund jihad, “[T]his business, the profit generated from this business will be for the brothers, I mean we have to support the mujahideen brother,” and DAHER then described his organization, the Canadian Islamic Association, as a “cover, I mean it’s very good.”

18. On or about March 21, 1995, HASSOUN participated in a coded conversation with JAYYOUSI and DAHER, in which HASSOUN stressed that “we have a number of people active in the field,” and then stated, “All of us are in a chain, if one link of the chain is separated, the movement will not function,” and that this concept is particularly important in the field of “tourism.”

19. On or about June 25, 1995, DAHER participated in a coded conversation with HASSOUN and JAYYOUSI, in which DAHER reported, “Our friend in the first region . . . a/k/a "Abu Sayyaf,"

having taken an oath before a competent tribunal, officer, and person, that is, an Immigration Judge, in a case in which a law of the United States authorizes an oath to be administered, that is, an Immigration Court proceeding, that he will testify, declare, depose, and certify truly, did knowingly, willfully, and contrary to such oath, state and subscribe material matters which he did not believe to be true, concerning his recruitment of Mohamed Youssef to fight in a violent jihad and discussions about violent jihad over the telephone with Mohamed Youssef, as herein set forth below:

Q. And was he one of your recruits as has been said in the affidavit?

A. I never recruited him.

Q. And how - what's your phone contacts with Mr. Yousef?

A. At that time after he left to Egypt?

Q. Yes.

A. When he left to Egypt he kept in touch and he used to call to ask about how the community is doing over here and how the family is doing and that was it.

The aforementioned testimony by HASSOUN as he then and there believed, was a false material statement, in that HASSOUN did recruit Mohamed Youssef to fight in a violent jihad and did discuss violent jihad over the telephone with Mohamed Youssef.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1621(1).

COUNT 7

Q. And did you ever provide anything - any monetary financial assistance to him?

A. At one point he wanted money to prepare a land that he has, this is what he said, and that land, I believe, is close to the Suez canal, somewhere like that. And he asked if the community can help him to fix the land and the community responded and we helped him.

Q. Okay. And was there any other purpose other than the land that you owned there?

A. This is what he asked and this is what we respond.

* * * *

Q. Right. And you said the money was for what?

A. To fix his land, fix his house.

The aforementioned testimony by HASSOUN, as he then and there believed, was a false material statement, in that HASSOUN did provide financial assistance to Mohamed Youssef for the purpose of fighting in a violent jihad.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1621(1).

COUNT 8

(Perjury)

On or about July 22, 2002, in Miami-Dade County, in the Southern District of Florida, the defendant,

ADHAM AMIN HASSOUN,
a/k/a "Abu Sayyaf,"

having taken an oath before a competent tribunal, officer, and person, that is, an Immigration Judge, in a case in which a law of the United States authorizes an oath to be administered, that is, an Immigration Court proceeding, that he will testify, declare, depose, and certify truly, did knowingly, willfully, and contrary to such oath, state and subscribe material matters which he did not believe to be true, concerning his use of coded language with other individuals, including Mohamed Youssef, when discussing violent jihad activities, as herein set forth below:

Q. Did you speak with him in code language?

A. Never.

Q. Do you have any code languages with any –

A. No, I don't.

* * * *

Q. And in 1998 it's alleged that you have a conversation, you talk about you have soccer equipment. Did you recall any conversation like that?

A. No. I know he wanted - he wanted to open a business, you know, and he wants to get something from here, buy equipment and stuff like that.

Q. Do you recall what equipment he was talking about?

A. Soccer maybe, or football, something like that. But I asked him to come over here and pick up whatever he wants.

* * * *

Q. Sir, in your - you talked about this in direct examination, but in your - one of your telephone conversations in 1998 with Mr. Yousef you discussed soccer equipment?

A. He discussed, yes.

Q. Okay. Well –

A. Yes, go ahead.

Q. - he discussed it with you?

A. Uh-huh.

Q. Right. And your assertion is that he was directly speaking just of soccer equipment?

A. Yes, he gave me the impression that he wants to open a business and he wants to do some trade. In my - you want to hear my (unintelligible).

Q. No. Sir, isn't it true that during that conversation you also asked, even though you were speaking about soccer equipment, you asked him if he had enough to launch an attack on the enemy?

A. What enemy?

Q. Did you say those words or something close to those words?

A. Not that I recall.

Q. Do you recall discussing with him an attack?

A. Where was he, in Egypt?

Q. Yes.

A. What enemy?

Q. Well I'm asking you, sir.

A. No.

Q. Did you discuss with him having enough equipment to engage an enemy?

A. I don't recall that.

Q. But you may have?

A. I don't recall that.

Q. Well –

A. I'm trying to put where you're going. If I may –

Q. Well, it's a very specific question, sir.

A. Go ahead.

Q. The question is: In your conversation in 1998 with Mr. Yousef in which he discussed soccer equipment did you or did you not talk to him about having enough equipment to engage an enemy?

A. No.

Q. You did not?

Q. Did you discuss with him anti-armor tools?

A. I don't recall.

Q. But you might have?

A. What is that again?

Q. Anti-armor tools. Did you discuss tools with him?

A. I don't recall what we spoke. I know that we spoke that he wants to trade and he wants to have a soccer team and stuff like that. Other than that, I don't recall. I know that part.

The aforementioned testimony by HASSOUN, as he then and there believed, was a false material statement, in that HASSOUN did speak in coded language with other individuals, including Mohamed Youssef, when discussing violent jihad activities.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1621(1).

COUNT 9

(Perjury)

On or about July 22, 2002, in Miami-Dade County, in the Southern District of Florida, the defendant,

ADHAM AMIN HASSOUN,
a/k/a "Abu Sayyaf,"

having taken an oath before a competent tribunal, officer, and person, that is, an Immigration Judge, in a case in which a law of the United States authorizes an oath to be administered, that is, an Immigration Court proceeding, that he will testify, declare, depose, and certify truly, did knowingly, willfully, and contrary to such oath, state and subscribe material matters which he did not believe to be true, concerning his conversations with Mohamed Youssef about the experience of fighting in a violent jihad conflict, as herein set forth below:

Q. Sir, have you ever discussed with Yousef in any phone call his experiences on the front lines?

A. What front lines?

Q. Front lines of any battle.

A. What battle?

Q. Any battle, any armed conflict.

A. He never spoke to me about any armed conflict.

Q. So you've never discussed with him his activities on the front lines in any armed struggle or conflict?

A. I don't recall any of that happening.

Q. But it could have?

A. Not really. No.

The aforementioned testimony by HASSOUN, as he then and there believed, was a false material statement, in that HASSOUN did participate in conversations with Mohamed Youssef about the experience of fighting in a violent jihad conflict.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1621(1).

COUNT 10

(Perjury)

Beginning on or about July 22, 2002, and continuing until on or about August 1, 2002, in Miami-Dade County, in the Southern District of Florida, the defendant,

ADHAM AMIN HASSOUN,

a/k/a "Abu Sayyaf,"

having taken an oath before a competent tribunal, officer, and person, that is, an Immigration Judge, in a case in which a law of the United States authorizes an oath to be administered, that is, an Immigration Court proceeding, that he will testify, declare, depose, and certify truly, did knowingly, willfully, and contrary to such oath, state and subscribe material matters which he did not believe to be true, concerning his participation in conversations about killing a woman in Lebanon, as herein set forth below:

Q. Now you have read the allegations in the affidavit provided by the Government written by Officer Arena -

A. Yes, I did.

Q. - FBI Agent. I'm going to direct your attention to that affidavit. First, we're going to go to Paragraph 17 where it has the allegation that sometime in August, 1997, you had a conversation with someone identified as an associate concerning a female, the way I understood, was stuck in Lebanon, and the Government, in cooperation with CIA and State Department, was trying to bring her here. And you made some comments. Do you recall any of those comments?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall any female stuck in Lebanon -

A. No, I don't.

Q. - In 1997?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall you ordering the assassination of that female?

A. Never.

Q. I remind you are under oath.

A. I am under oath.

Q. And I want you to - five, six, years ago, which incident has been explained here, and do you recall saying that “I have to speak with brothers in Lebanon to take care of her.”

A. Never.

Q. Do you recall any conversation?

A. Never. Never happened.

* * * *

Q. Do you recall any of this, which is said in paragraph 17, if it ever happened?

A. Never happened. I read it many times through the weekend, through the whole week since I had this, none of that happened.

* * * *

Q. And, sir, do you still claim that at no time you had a conversation about a female who had traveled from the United States to the Middle East, that conversation discussing the issue of having her killed?

A. Do I what?

Q. Did you ever have a conversation with somebody about killing a woman?

A. No, no, never.

* * * *

Q. Hassoun, you know that there's a - someone named “associate” mentioned in - in paragraph 17 of Agent Arena's declaration. Do you know who that person is?

A. No.

Q. Have you ever spoken to anyone who can say I overheard you saying that you want to kill someone, plot to kill someone?

A. No.

Q. Did you ever have in your mind ill - will against anyone?

A. Never.

Q. Do you know this female mentioned in paragraph 17?

A. I have no idea.

Q. So it's an absolute denial?

A. Absolute denial.

Q. You under oath.

A. I am under oath.

The aforementioned testimony by HASSOUN, as he then and there believed, was a false material statement, in that HASSOUN did participate in conversations about killing a woman in Lebanon.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1621(1).

COUNT 11
