The Grand Jury charges that:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. The name "al Qaeda" is used by an international terrorist group which is dedicated to opposing non-Islamic governments by encouraging and promoting jihad. Al Qaeda is led by its emir, Usama Bin Laden, who is also commonly referred to the "sheik." Members of al Qaeda pledge an oath of allegiance (called a "bayat") to Usama Bin Laden and al Qaeda. On October 8, 1999, al Qaeda was designated by the Secretary of State as a foreign terrorist organization pursuant to Section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and was redesignated as such on or about October 5, 2001, and again on October 2, 2003, and remains so designated through the date of the return of this Indictment.

2. As used in this Indictment, the term "jihad" refers to violent jihad, which in turn refers to the taking of actions against persons or governments in order to undermine and bring about the downfall of governments, and which includes planning, preparing for, and engaging in, acts of physical violence, murder, maiming, kidnaping, and the destruction of property.

3. The Sears Tower building located in Chicago, Illinois, is 110-stories tall and contains 4.4 million square feet of office and commercial space which is leased to several private and governmental institutions.

4. The Federal Bureau of Investigation Miami Field Office operates in a building located at 16320 N.W. 2nd Avenue, North Miami Beach, in Miami-Dade County, Florida (hereinafter "the FBI Building").
