NORTH AMERICAN ISLAMIC TRUST (NAIT)

Some of the current leaders of the MSA were members of the "Muslim Brotherhood" in their respective home countries in the Middle East and Egypt prior to establishing a residence in the U.S. and their subsequent assimilation into the Muslim community in the U.S. was through ISNA, the MSA, Organization of Arab Students, MAYA and NAIT. These individuals have moved to leadership roles within NAIT and its related Muslim organizations which means they are in a position to direct the activities and support of Muslims in the U.S. for the Islamic Revolution.

The following list identifies NAIT leaders from public records since its incorporation in 1973:
