My daughters answer on my behalf.

And I am the Jew and I do not fight.

Mufid: This is your work, against who are you using your tanks and cannons?, against unarmed people and children, the innocent people.

Mufid: And when do we return to our land?

And when do we return to our land and complete our happiness? And we would live in our land and heal our wound

God forbid, God forbid that we put down our weapons; for sake of the country

death will become easy.

[End].
