INDICTMENT

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

General Allegations

TALAL KHALIL CHAHINE, defendant herein, is and was at all times material to this Indictment the sole owner of La Shish, Inc., a Middle Eastern restaurant chain located in the metropolitan Detroit, Michigan area. TALAL KHALIL CHAHINE married ELFAT EL AOUAR, defendant herein, in August 2000. ELFAT EL AOUAR worked for La Shish, Inc. in various capacities including as the company's Vice President of Finance, and shared in assets and income produced by the restaurants. TALAL KHALIL CHAHINE and ELFAT EL AOUAR each personally oversaw the handling and disposal of cash receipts and negotiable instruments for La Shish, Inc., as well as the company's computerized books, records and balance reports.

At the direction of TALAL KHALIL CHAHINE, and with the assistance and active participation of ELFAT EL AOUAR, La Shish, Inc. maintained a double set of computerized books, records and balance reports, one actual and one altered. The altered books, records and balance reports artificially reduced the amount of income in the form of cash that was actually received by the restaurants. To evade government scrutiny, and with the assistance and active participation of ELFAT EL AOUAR, TALAL KHALIL CHAHINE also directed that La Shish, Inc. fail to deposit a substantial amount of cash receipts from the restaurants. Instead, TALAL KHALIL CHAHINE and ELFAT EL AOUAR had La Shish, Inc. employees convert millions of dollars into cashier's checks and also change denomination size from smaller denominations into larger denominations. These conversions were made for the purpose of transporting the cash outside the United States to Lebanon, away from government reach and detection. TALAL KHALIL CHAHINE and ELFAT EL AOUAR also skimmed cash by paying employees of La Shish, Inc. all or partly in cash.
