UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

KEVIN JAMES,

Defendant.

CASE NO. SACR 05-00214-CJC

JUDGMENT CONTINUING
SUPERVISED RELEASE

On October 7, 2019, in the presence of the attorney for the Government, Dennise Willett, the defendant appeared in person with appointed counsel, Deputy Federal Public Defender Nadine Hettle. The defendant waived reading and advisement of his rights and admitted the violations alleged in Paragraph 1 of the Petition on Probation and Supervised Release filed on October 4, 2019.

In light of the defendant's admissions, the Court finds that the defendant has violated the conditions of his supervised release that were imposed on March 6, 2009.

1 NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ADJUDGED, upon the findings of the Court, the period of
2 supervised release is continued under the same terms and conditions as previously imposed
3 with the following additional conditions:
4

- 5 1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States
6 Probation & Pretrial Services Office and General Order 18-10, excluding Condition
7 14 in Section I of that Order;
- 8 2. The defendant shall participate in electronic monitoring, GPS, or automated 9 identification system and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by 10 the Probation Officer, for the duration of supervision. The defendant is only subject
11 to monitoring, and he is not ordered to participate in home detention or pay 12 associated costs of the program;
- 13 3. The defendant shall possess and/or use only those digital devices and internet 14 accounts that have been disclosed to, and approved by, the Probation Office upon 15 commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions to digital devices or 16 internet accounts are to be disclosed to, and approved by, the Probation Officer 17 prior to the first use of the same. Disclosure shall include both user names and 18 passwords for all digital devices and internet accounts. Digital devices include, but 19 are not limited to, personal computers, tablet computers such as iPads,
20 mobile/cellular telephones, personal data assistants, digital storage media,
21 devices or media which can provide access to electronic games, devices that can 22 access the internet, as well as any of their peripheral equipment. Internet accounts
23 include, but are not limited to, email accounts, cloud storage/services accounts, 24 social media accounts, electronic bulletin boards, or other accounts on the 25 internet;
- 26 4. All cellular/mobile phones, computers, computer-related devices, and their 27 peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search and 28 seizure. This shall not apply to items used at any employment site, which are maintained and monitored by the employer;
5. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program and shall not be responsible for the cost of the Program;
6. The defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with all billing records for any service or good relating to any digital device or internet account, including those for cellular telephone, cable, internet and satellite services, as requested by the Probation Officer, so that the Probation Officer can verify compliance with these requirements;
