

① Ya Akhi Dawud »
Remember when we said Kafir are more trusting with regards to Ad Dawla. I think this is a sufficient test to that theory. Should you have any persons domestic or foreign to help acquiesce our plans to capture the zalimun in this wretched babylon, please provide them. Also write back to me with any comments suggestions or plans possibly. I have acquired a recruit from ~~here~~ with full bayah we thought to scope out highway interstate crossings from east coast. We will try get ammo & more personnel to co-ordinate our attack, leave no stone unturned. Thinking about alternative communications such as runners or carrier birds for emp usage, we need to leave them blind. This is going to be big worse than Ghengis Khan can't wait for them juicy necks. We will need people from southern states as well we can get a foothold there lest it goes sour. Indeed we will remain in contact through the afore-mentioned persons.
