ATTACHMENT C TO SEARCH WARRANT COMPUTER SEARCH PROTOCOL

1. Definition of "Computer." Unless otherwise defined in the warrant, "computer" means any electronic, magnetic, optical, electro-chemical, or other data processing device performing logical or storage functions, and includes any information storage facility, communications facility, or other equipment or media directly related to or operating in conjunction with such device. "Computer" also includes the system software (e.g., operating systems, interfaces, hardware drivers), applications software, and related instruction manuals or other documentation and data security devices (e.g., passwords, keycards) needed to conduct the search authorized by the warrant. "Media" as used in this definition means all forms of material or devices that are capable of storing or preserving electronic information (i.e., data of any kind).

2. On-Site Search. To the extent practicable, the computer described in the warrant shall be analyzed at the search site (i.e., the location identified in the warrant) and not seized for analysis off-site. Alternatives to seizure for purposes of analysis off-site that may be considered by the government include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) identification of a knowledgeable person at the search site who could assist the government in locating information subject to the warrant;
- (b) use by the government of its own expert at the search site to locate the information subject to the warrant;
- (c) creation at the search site of an electronic mirror image of those parts of the computer that are likely to contain information subject to the warrant and subsequent analysis of such mirror image copy off-site in lieu of the computer.

3. Seizure for Analysis Off-Site. If any computer subject to the warrant cannot practicably be analyzed at the search site, the warrant allows for seizure of such computer and its removal from the search site to a laboratory, controlled environment, or other off-site location for purposes of analysis. Such off-site analysis shall be completed as promptly as practicable. In the event of such seizure, the government shall furnish to the issuing Magistrate Judge every 30 calendar days after the warrant is returned a status update regarding the analysis being conducted, including an estimate of the additional time needed to complete the analysis. These updates shall continue to be submitted until the analysis is complete or until further order of the court. If upon completion of the off-site analysis the government determines that the computer and the information stored in it are not subject to permanent seizure as contraband (i.e., property used in furtherance of criminal activity), fruits of criminal activity, or on other grounds, the government shall return the computer to the person from whom or from whose premises it was taken. Such return shall be made as soon as practicable after completion of the analysis but in no event more than 10 calendar days thereafter unless a longer time is allowed by court order or agreement of the parties.

4. Seizure as Contraband or Instrumentality. The government may permanently seize a computer and information stored therein that the government identifies (in connection with either an on-site or off-site search) as contraband, fruits of criminal activity, or otherwise subject to permanent seizure if the warrant allows for such permanent seizure. If the warrant does not authorize such permanent seizure, the government shall obtain another warrant supported by probable cause authorizing permanent seizure before effecting it. If the computer had initially been seized only for purposes of analysis off-site, the government shall notify the issuing Magistrate Judge of its determination to permanently seize the computer and/or information stored therein and may request that its ongoing obligation to report on its analysis of such computer cease.

5. Storage of Information on Seized Computer. The government shall make a copy of all information stored on the computer as soon as practicable after the computer's seizure except as otherwise provided by the warrant. Such copy shall not be analyzed by the government except as reasonably necessary to confirm that it is an accurate copy, but shall be retained until further order of the court as a record of the state of the computer and the information therein prior to any subsequent analysis by the government. The government shall not reconfigure the computer until such copy has been made.

6. Return of Information from Seized Computer. If any person from which or from whose premises a computer is seized either for off-site analysis or permanently so requests in writing, the government shall provide to the person within a reasonable time of the request copies of any requested information not subject to permanent seizure (as contraband, fruits of criminal activity, or on other grounds) that may reasonably be necessary or important to the continuing functioning of the person's legitimate activities. If the government withholds any information requested, it shall within a reasonable time of the request identify to the person making the request the information being withheld and the reasons for withholding it.

7. Search Methodology. In conducting the search authorized by this warrant, whether performed on-site or off-site, the government shall make reasonable efforts to utilize a computer search methodology to search for and seize only that information which is identified in the warrant as subject to such search or seizure. The search methodology may include, but is not limited to, the following techniques:

- (a) surveying various file “directories” and the individual files they contain (analogous to looking at the outside of a file cabinet for the markings it contains and opening a drawer believed to contain pertinent files);
- (b) “opening” or cursorily reading the first few “pages” of such files in order to determine their precise contents;
- (c) “scanning” storage areas to discover and possibly recover recently deleted data;
- (d) scanning storage areas for deliberately hidden files; or
- (e) performing key word searches through all electronic storage areas to determine whether occurrences of language contained in such storage areas exist that are intimately related to the subject matter of the investigation.

8. Unopened Email. Except as expressly provided in the warrant, the warrant and this protocol do not authorize the opening and search of the contents of any kind of unopened electronic mail. In the absence of express authorization in the warrant, no opening and search of unopened electronic mail shall be conducted without a separate search warrant supported by probable cause.

9. Inventories. When a computer has been seized for analysis off-site, the government shall comply with Fed. R. Crim. P. 41(f) in the following manner:

(a) Initial Inventory. Following the on-site search and seizure, the government shall prepare the usual Rule 41(f) inventory of not only the property and items seized by it pursuant to the warrant, but also the information, which has, at that date, been identified as seized pursuant to the warrant. This inventory shall identify each computer that will be subject to further off-site analysis. For example, if the government makes an on-site mirror image of a computer for use in an off-site analysis, the government need only list the making of the mirror image in the return, with an indication that it is subject to further searching pursuant to this warrant. The listing of any information that is seized from the computer off-site will then be made in the final inventory. The government shall give a copy of the warrant and this initial inventory of property seized to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken and make a return to the court, all as provided by Rule 41(f). Because of the nature of electronic or computer information, the listing of seized information in either the initial or final inventory may be made by copying the seized information to a computer diskette, compact disc (i.e., CD), DVD, or like storage device and submitting it along with an affidavit which describes the contents of the storage device.

(b) Final Inventory. After completing the off-site analysis of the computer, the government shall prepare a final inventory of information seized during the off-site analysis. The government shall deliver a copy of the final inventory to the person from whom or from whose premises the computer was taken and make a return of the original final inventory to the court. The court will then attach this final inventory to the original search warrant and initial inventory as an addendum.

10. Copy of Protocol to Searching Personnel. Counsel for the government shall take reasonable steps to ensure that a copy of this protocol is provided to the person or persons who perform the search authorized by this warrant.

11. Superseding Effect. This protocol supersedes any contrary terms set forth in the application for the search warrant, the supporting affidavit, or any attachments thereto.
