ADEL DAOUD)	Hon. Sharon Johnson Coleman

AGREED AMENDED ORDER

WHEREAS, the parties agree that they have a compelling interest in preventing certain sensitive but declassified discovery materials from being disclosed to anyone not a party to the court proceedings in this matter; such material may include information relevant to ongoing national security investigations and prosecutions; and such materials may implicate the privacy interests of the defendant and third parties;

AND WHEREAS, the government seeks to tender to the defendant certain declassified materials prior to the next scheduled proceeding in this case. As used herein, the term “Declassified Materials” refers to any and all classified documents, materials, and information that have been marked as declassified and provided by the government to defense counsel as part of discovery in this case;

AND WHEREAS, the parties further agree that the Court has the power under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(d)(1) and 26.2 to grant appropriate relief to the parties where required in the interests of justice;

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure that the government shall segregate the discovery materials it produces to the defendant and his counsel of record into two categories: (1) General Discovery Materials, and (2) Sensitive Discovery Materials. The category to which particular discovery materials belong shall be clearly identified by the government;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, except as provided below, General Discovery Materials shall not be further disseminated¹ by the defendant or his counsel of record to any individuals, organizations or other entities, other than: (i) members of the defense team (co-counsel, paralegals, investigators, translators, litigation support personnel, the defendant, the defendant's immediate family, and secretarial staff) and (ii) experts retained to assist in the preparation of the defense. Members of the defense team may show (but not provide copies of) any General Discovery Materials to witnesses or potential witnesses during the course of their investigation of this case. Each of the individuals to whom disclosure is made pursuant to the above provisions shall be provided a copy of this protective order and will be advised that he or she shall not further disseminate the materials except by the express direction of counsel of record or co-counsel;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Sensitive Discovery Materials² shall not be further disseminated by the defendant or his counsel of record to any individuals, organizations or other entities, other than (i) members of the defense team (co-counsel, paralegals, investigators, translators, litigation support personnel, the defendant, the defendant's immediate family, and secretarial staff); and (ii) experts retained to assist in the preparation of the defense. Notice of proposed dissemination to defense experts shall be provided to the Court ex parte and under seal. Each of the individuals to whom disclosure is made pursuant to the above provision shall be provided a copy of this protective order and will be advised that he or she shall not further disseminate the materials except by the express direction of counsel of record or co-counsel. The government shall provide copies of any Sensitive Discovery Material appropriately so marked. It is expressly understood that counsel for the defendant or co-counsel may not disseminate any of such Sensitive Discovery Materials to witnesses or potential witnesses. The defendant may seek relief from these provisions as to a particular item or items of discovery by providing notice to the Court of intent to disseminate particular identified item(s) to a witness and the purpose in doing so. The Notice shall be under seal. No disclosure of the item(s) to the witness(es) shall be made until the Court so permits. The Court, after notifying the defense, may consult with the Government regarding any dissemination requests pursuant to this paragraph;

¹ "Disseminated" means to provide, show or describe to another either a particular piece of discovery or quotations, excerpts, or summaries derived therefrom.

² The category of Sensitive Discovery Materials includes all declassified information, and all declassified materials that were a product of physical searches or electronic surveillance authorized pursuant to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, 50 U.S.C. §§ 1801-1811, 1821-1829, (FISA) that are reviewed by or made available to the defendant or defense team in this case. Such declassified materials shall be collectively referred to as "Declassified Materials."

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that no General Discovery Material or Sensitive Discovery Material shall be disseminated to any member of the defense team, as defined above, expert witness retained by the defense team, or any duly authorized witness unless that person shall first have signed the Memorandum of Understanding in the form attached hereto, agreeing to comply with the terms of this Order. The signed Memorandum of Understanding shall be filed with the Court under seal. The substitution, departure, or removal for any reason from this case of counsel for the defendant, or anyone associated with the defense team shall not release that person from the provisions of this Order or the Memorandum of Understanding executed in connection with this Order;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all discovery materials, whether general or sensitive, in this case are now and will forever remain the property of the United States Government. At the conclusion of this case, all discovery materials shall be destroyed or maintained under secure conditions by defense counsel. Upon written request of the Government, all discovery materials shall be returned to the Government;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defense counsel in receipt of Declassified Materials may only make copies of the Declassified Materials in accordance with this order. Defense counsel shall not remove from any copies of either General Discovery Materials or Sensitive Discovery Materials any inscription made by the Government identifying the materials as: "U.S. Government Property" and "May Not Be Used Without U.S. Government Permission";

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all discovery materials are to be provided to the defense, and used by the defense, solely for the purpose of allowing the defendant to prepare his defense;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that no party shall make, or participate in the making of, any extrajudicial disclosure of Sensitive Discovery Materials for dissemination by means of public communication, unless such materials are (or become) public record, including but not limited to, trial transcripts, documents that have been received in evidence at other trials, or documents that are otherwise properly placed in the public domain;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any papers to be served upon the Court by either party which include Sensitive Discovery Materials or refer to the contents of Sensitive Discovery Materials shall be filed under seal;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any papers to be served upon the Court in response to papers served in conformity with the preceding paragraph also be filed under seal;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel shall store all Sensitive Discovery Materials, and any copies thereof, in a secure place;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that notwithstanding any other provision of this or any other Protective Order that may be entered by the Court, the disclosure or discovery of materials that may be submitted to the Court in connection with any FISA-related litigation, including but not limited to any FISA applications, orders, or related materials, shall be governed by FISA;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any papers filed by the government pursuant to the Classified Information Procedures Act containing classified information shall be filed under seal and ex parte with the Court through the Court Information Security Officer. The date and time of physical submission to the Court Information Security Officer shall be considered the date and time of the filing. In accordance with the provisions of Classified Information Protection Act and the Security Procedures, the Court designates Daniel O. Hartenstine as Court Information Security Officer for this case, and Jennifer H. Campbell, Branden M. Forsgren, Christine E. Gunning, Joan B. Kennedy, Maura L. Peterson, Michael P. Macisso, Carli V. Rodriguez-Feo, Harry J. Rucker and Winfield S. Slade as Alternate Court Information Security Officers;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that nothing in this Order shall preclude the government or the defendant from seeking a further protective order pursuant to Rule 16(d) as to particular items of discovery material; and FINALLY, IT IS ORDERED that this Order is entered without prejudice to either party's right to seek a revision of the Order by appropriate motion to the Court.
