AFFIDAVIT

I, MARTIN MCDONALD, being duly sworn, depose and say:

1. I am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”) within the meaning of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3052, and as such I am an officer of the United States who is authorized to investigate laws of the United States and to execute warrants issued under the authority of the United States. I have been employed as an FBI Special Agent since November 2010.
2. I am investigating the activities of KEONNA THOMAS, a/k/a “Fatayat Al Khilafah,” a/k/a “YoungLioness,” who is a United States citizen residing in Philadelphia, PA. As will be shown below, I submit there is probable cause to believe that THOMAS has committed the crime of attempting to provide material support or resources to the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL), a designated foreign terrorist organization, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2339B.
3. The information contained in this affidavit is based upon my personal knowledge of this investigation as well as information that I obtained from my conversations with other FBI agents, law enforcement officers, and civilian witnesses. Because this affidavit is being submitted for the limited purpose of enabling this Court to make a judicial determination of probable cause to issue an arrest warrant, I have not included each and every fact known to me concerning this investigation. I have set forth only the facts that I believe are necessary to establish the legal basis for the issuance of an arrest warrant.

The Secretary also added additional aliases to the listing, including “the Islamic State of Iraq and al-Sham,” and “the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria” (ISIS).
6. As a consequence of these Department of State designations, there is a prohibition against knowingly providing, or attempting or conspiring to provide, material support or resources to, or engaging in transactions with ISIL.
7. On or about August 19, 2014, ISIL claimed responsibility for the videotaped beheading of an American aid worker. On or about September 9, 2014, ISIL claimed responsibility for the videotaped beheading of another American aid worker. On or about September 13, 2014, ISIL claimed responsibility for the videotaped beheading of a British aid worker.
