Subject: Polygraph test no. 621/93

Name: Muhammad Abd Al-Hamid Khalil Salah [redacted] -U.S.A.

0001 Background

1. We were asked to examine the subject in a number of investigative directions regarding the awareness of terrorist operations, and particularly with respect to the terrorist attack murder of Toledano, of blessed memory, on December 13, 92 (terrorist attack 111315).

2. On April 13, 93, the subject was given a polygraph test and he was asked the [questions] listed below, to which he answered in the negative:

-a(1) Aside from Toledano, are you withholding details from us about people who carried out terrorist attacks?

-b(2) While you were in the U.S.A., were you told who carried out the Toledano terrorist attack?

0010 -c(3) When you arrived this time, were you told who carried out the Toledano terrorist attack?

-d(4) When you arrived this time, did 'Adel tell you who had carried out the Toledano terrorist attack?

-e(5) Do you know with certainty, who carried out the Toledano terrorist attack?

Findings:

0015 3. During the interpretation of the test, certain responses were discerned for questions 2a, 2c, and 2e above.

4. Another test was performed on the subject, during which he was asked the listed below, to which he answered in the negative:

-a.(4) When you arrived this time, were you told who carried out the Toledano terrorist attack?

-b.(6) Do you know with certainty who carried out the Toledano terrorist attack?

0020 Findings:

5. While interpreting the test, no responses were discerned that characterize false statements to the aforementioned questions.

6. For the above question 2a, we are unable to make reference, and the examination of the subject with respect to this topic should be completed as soon as possible.
