C. SENTENCING - GENERAL

Before the Court can accept your plea of guilty, it is important that you understand certain aspects of the sentencing process. The questions in this section are designed for that purpose.

If you plead GUILTY to an offense that occurred on or after April 24, 1996, and the offense falls into certain categories of offenses, including property offenses and crimes of violence, ordinarily the judge is required to order you to pay restitution to any victim of the offense [18 U.S.C. § 3663A]. Also, in certain cases, the law identifies specific classes of people or organizations that may be entitled to restitution. Restitution is a continuing obligation that does not end until it is paid in full. In other words, the United States may continue to seek restitution from you even though you are no longer serving a sentence of confinement or supervision. Do you understand all of this?

Yes ☒ No ☐

21. The judge must impose a special assessment for each count to which you enter a plea of guilty. The amount of the special assessment depends on whether the offense is a felony or a misdemeanor [18 U.S.C. § 3013]. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐

22. If you are on probation or parole in this or any other court, do you know that by pleading GUILTY here your probation or parole may be revoked and you may be required to serve a sentence as a result of that revocation in addition to any sentence imposed upon you in this case? Yes ☒ No ☐

D. SENTENCING GUIDELINES AND OTHER SENTENCING CONSIDERATIONS

25. In determining an appropriate sentence for a federal crime, the judge must consider the Sentencing Guidelines developed by the United States Sentencing Commission. The Sentencing Guidelines are advisory in nature, not mandatory. The judge must consider imposing a sentence within the range established by the Sentencing Guidelines, but the judge may impose a sentence either above or below that range. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐
26. In calculating the range of sentence under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines, the judge will take into account all conduct, circumstances, and injuries associated with your criminal conduct, whether or not this conduct is formally charged by the government. The judge will consider all relevant conduct at the time of sentencing even though you are pleading guilty to fewer than all counts in the Indictment or Information. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐
27. Also, there is no limitation placed on the information the judge can consider at the time of sentencing concerning your background, character, and conduct so long as the information is reliable. The judge will take all of these factors into consideration in determining an appropriate sentence. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐
28. If the judge orders a presentence investigation, a U.S. Probation Officer will be assigned to conduct a thorough investigation and prepare a presentence report for the judge's use. Do you understand that if you lie to the U.S. Probation Officer, or if you cause others to lie on your behalf, this can be considered by the judge and may increase the range of sentence calculated under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines? Yes ☒ No ☐
29. Your history of prior criminal convictions will be used to compute your Criminal History Category under the Sentencing Guidelines. If you have prior felony convictions which were imposed or for which you have served time within the past 15 years, your Criminal History Category may be increased. Similarly, if you have received misdemeanor convictions within the past 10 years, your Criminal History Category may be increased. Certain exceptions may apply in your case that would exclude a conviction from the Criminal History Category computation. Nonetheless, do you understand your prior criminal history has a direct impact on the calculation of the sentencing range under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines? Yes ☒ No ☐

30. Do you understand if you committed the present offense(s) while you were on probation, parole, supervised release, or escape status, this will increase the number of points assessed in your criminal history computation. If this increases your Criminal History Category, do you understand it may increase the range of sentence calculated under the advisory Sentencing Guidelines? Yes ☒ No ☐
31. Do you understand if this offense is a crime of violence or a drug trafficking offense, and if you have two prior felony convictions of either a crime of violence or a drug trafficking offense, you could be sentenced as a career criminal offender which would increase the sentence you receive?
Yes ☐ No ☐ Not Applicable ☒
32. The maximum sentence for the offense(s) to which you want to plead guilty is the statutory maximum set out in ¶¶ 19, 20 and 21 above. If you are pleading guilty to more than one count, you could receive the maximum sentence on each count of conviction running consecutively (C/S). See USSG § 5G1.2. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐
33. In certain cases, the law requires the judge to impose a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment. The judge may not impose a sentence below a mandatory minimum term unless the United States Attorney, in his or her discretion, files a motion. Do you understand this? Yes ☐ No ☐ Not Applicable ☒
34. Parole is not available in the federal system. If you are sentenced to a term of imprisonment, you will serve the entire time imposed (less any earned good time credits that may be applied to reduce the amount of time you actually serve). The maximum amount of credit you may receive against your sentence will be determined by the Bureau of Prisons and is limited by statute [18 U.S.C. § 3624]. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐
35. If at least one year of imprisonment is ordered in your case, the judge may also impose a term of supervised release, which you will begin serving after you are released from custody. For certain offenses, a term of supervised release is mandatory. During any term of supervised release, you will be subject to conditions that will include refraining from any additional violations of local, state or federal law, reporting requirements, travel and residence restrictions, and testing for controlled substance use. If you violate the conditions of your supervised release, the judge may revoke your supervised release and sentence you to an additional term of imprisonment. This additional term of imprisonment would be served without credit for the time you successfully spent on supervised release. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐

The judge has the discretion to impose another term of supervised release, to be served after you serve your sentence for violating the first term of supervised release. If you violate your supervised release again, you can be sentenced to serve more time, followed by more supervised release, at the discretion of the judge. Under certain circumstances there is no limit to the number of times supervised release can be revoked and another term of supervised release imposed. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐

36. In some circumstances, the judge may decide that your case warrants imposing a sentence with conditions other than incarceration for the full term of the sentence. Options available to the judge include probation, home confinement, community confinement, electronic monitoring, intermittent confinement, or a combination of any of these. Do you understand this? Yes ☒ No ☐

37. If you plead guilty to a federal sex offense, you may be subject to state laws requiring the registration of sex offenders. Do you understand this?
Yes ☐ No ☐ Not Applicable ☒

Yes ☒ No ☐

(b) If so:

If yes, what issues are reserved for appeal? _____

Have you read the plea agreement or had the plea agreement read to you?
Yes ☒ No ☐

Have you had enough time to discuss the plea agreement with your attorney?
Yes ☒ No ☐

Were all the terms of the plea agreement explained to you, including any waivers of your rights? Yes ☒ No ☐

Do you understand all of the terms of the plea agreement, including the waivers of your rights? Yes ☒ No ☐

(c) What are your reasons for making that agreement?

To accept responsibility for my conduct.

(d) If your plea of GUILTY involves a plea agreement, do you understand that the judge can reject the plea agreement after completion of the presentence investigation if the judge finds that the plea agreement is not in the interests of justice? Yes ☒ No ☐

40. Has any promise been made by anyone that causes you to plead GUILTY aside from the plea agreement, if any, set out in your answer to question 39?

Yes ☐ No ☒ If yes, what promise has been made and by whom?

41. (a) Has any officer, attorney or agent of any branch of government (federal, state or local) promised or predicted that you will receive a lighter sentence, or probation, or any other form of leniency if you plead GUILTY?

Yes ☐ No ☒

(b) Do you understand no one has any authority to make any such promise or prediction on your sentence because the matter of sentencing is exclusively within the control of the judge and no one else? Yes ☒ No ☐

42. Has the judge made any suggestion as to what the actual sentence will be?

Yes ☐ No ☒

43. Are you pleading GUILTY because you are guilty? Yes ☒ No ☐

- Within the jurisdictional boundaries of the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma I knowingly possessed a non-immigrant visa; the visa was procured by materially false statements on its application form; I knew such statements were materially false. Also within the above stated Western District Court, I made statements to a federal agent which I knew were false, my statements were made deliberately and intentionally, in regard to an investigation by the Executive Branch, i.e., the FBI, and were pertinent to an investigation being conducted regarding an offense of international terrorism.

I understand that if I have knowingly and intentionally made any false answers in this Petition to Enter Plea of Guilty, my answers may be used against me in another prosecution for perjury or making a false statement.

Signed by me and affirmed to be true under penalty of perjury in the presence of my attorney on this 3rd 5th day of December, 2018.
