THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

INTRODUCTION

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. The defendant DZENAN CAMOVIC was a Bosnian national born in Germany, and a resident of Brooklyn, New York. He had no legal immigration status in the United States, and knew that he was an alien unlawfully in the United States.

2. On or about June 3, 2020, CAMOVIC approached two uniformed New York City Police Department ("NYPD") officers in the vicinity of 885 Flatbush Avenue in Brooklyn, New York. Upon reaching the NYPD officers, CAMOVIC stabbed one of officers in the neck area with a knife. CAMOVIC then chased after the second officer, repeatedly and violently stabbing at the officer with the knife and eventually throwing the knife at the officer.

3. CAMOVIC then ran back toward the first officer, whom he had already stabbed, and again attacked the officer. A struggle ensued. CAMOVIC fought for and ultimately forcibly gained control of the officer's service weapon, thereby robbing the officer of his service weapon through the use of force. The officer's service weapon was a SIG Sauer P226 black semiautomatic 9mm handgun manufactured outside the State of New York.

4. After gaining control of the officer's service weapon, CAMOVIC brandished the weapon and fired multiple shots at several officers, including at one or more officers who responded to the scene. Several officers were wounded during the course of CAMOVIC's attack.

5. The NYPD had a presence, and employed police officers and other employees that operated in their official capacities, in multiple locations outside of New York State and outside of the United States.
