The Grand Jury charges:

A. Introduction

At times material to this Superseding Indictment:

1. All defendants are hereinafter in this Count referred to by their name without reference to any "a/k/a" names; all names are transliterated from the Arabic language.

2. The Palestinian Islamic Jihad - Shiqaqi Faction (hereinafter referred to as "PIJ") was an international terrorist organization with "cells" or units located throughout the world. The Palestinian Islamic Jihad was also known amongst the conspirators as "the Islamic Jihad Movement in Palestine," "The Movement," and "The Family," and its members as "brothers" or "the youth." An individual who died while committing an act or acts of violence on behalf of the PIJ was described as a "martyr" for the PIJ; an individual who was arrested and incarcerated after committing an act or acts of violence on behalf of the PIJ was described as a "detainee."

3. There existed a PIJ manifesto entitled, "Manifesto of the Islamic Jihad in Palestine," which described the goals and principles of PIJ, along with its command and organizational structure. The PIJ manifesto described the PIJ as follows: The Islamic Jihad Movement in Palestine is a revolutionary "Jihad" Movement; it is the vanguard of the Islamic Revolutionary Movement. The manifesto stated that the PIJ was led by a "Secretary General" and a "Shura Council," a central advisory committee. The manifesto rejected any peaceful solution to the Palestinian cause, and affirmed the Jihad solution and the martyrdom style as the only choice for liberation. The PIJ manifesto indicated that the only purpose of PIJ was to destroy Israel and to end all Western influence (of the "Great Satan-America") in the region regardless of the cost to the inhabitants.

4. The State of Israel was an independent sovereignty geographically located on the eastern shore of the Mediterranean Sea. Israel was bordered on its north by Lebanon, and by Syria on its northeast. Israel was bordered on its east by Jordan, separated from it in part by the Jordan River, and by Egypt to its south and southwest. There also existed the Territories, which included an area commonly known as the Gaza Strip located on the southwestern border of Israel and an area known as the West Bank located on the eastern border of Israel with Jordan.

5. The Secretary General of the PIJ was Fathi Shiqaqi (Shiqaqi), a/k/a "Fathi Abdul Azeez," a/k/a "Fathi Ibrahim," a/k/a "A. Ibrahim," a/k/a "Hamed," a/k/a "Salem," a/k/a "Shaker," a/k/a "the Man," until on or about October 26, 1995. Fathi Shiqaqi and other persons managed the affairs of PIJ from PIJ headquarters in Damascus, Syria.

6. Defendant SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, who was not a United States citizen, originally entered the United States on a student visa, and became a permanent resident alien of the United States on March 27, 1989. 8. Defendant BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, who was not a United States citizen, entered the United States on several occasions with a H-1B visa. On or about July 1, 1996, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI was deported from the United States. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI was a member and founder of the PIJ and a member of the "Shura Council" of the PIJ.

Elehssan utilized internet websites for the solicitation of funds. These internet websites also featured PIJ claims of responsibility for terrorist acts and material on PIJ leaders such as RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and Fathi Shiqaqi.

21. In September, 1993, an agreement was reached between Israel and the Palestinian Liberation Organization (hereinafter referred to as "PLO"), which negotiated on behalf of Palestinians, to establish a Palestinian Self-Government Authority, also known as the Palestinian Authority (hereinafter referred to as "PA"). The agreement was known as the Oslo Accords and it provided that the jurisdiction of the PA included the West Bank and Gaza Strip. The agreement transferred from Israel to the PA the authority over education, health, direct taxes, tourism, elections and the creation of a Palestinian police force to ensure public order. The PLO and the PA were headed by Yasser Arafat, a/k/a "The Grey One," a/k/a "The Old Man," and a/k/a "Abu Amar." Israel retained responsibility for defending the West Bank and Gaza Strip from external threats and for the overall security of Israelis.

22. 27. It was further part of the conspiracy that each defendant agreed that a conspirator would commit at least two acts of racketeering in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise.

did include, but were not limited to, the following statements described in substance below:

- (a) The enemy forcibly took our land and the Jihad will continue until the complete liberation of our country, from the river to the sea;

- (d) Either the Zionists leave Palestine, or we will make it a graveyard for all of them.
- (e) Our goal is the complete elimination of the Zionist existence from our holy land;

- (l) The Zionist entity will not enjoy any security or stability as long as the occupation of our land Palestine remains;

- (n) Jihad is the only way to get back the whole Palestinian holy land, which is a property of the whole Islamic nation, and nobody has the right to surrender or yield a span of land.

34. The enterprise members would and did transfer monies and funds by wire transfer and otherwise between states in the United States, from locations within the United States to places outside of the United States, and from places outside of the United States to places within the United States, such transfers designed in whole or in part to conceal and disguise the nature, the location, the ownership, or the control of the monies and funds, all for the purpose of promoting PIJ activities and objectives, including paying compensation to the families of PIJ "martyrs" and "detainees."

39. 40. The enterprise members would and did utilize codes in conversations and communiques to conceal and disguise the enterprise's true activities and identities of members.

42. The enterprise members would and did misrepresent, conceal, and hide, and cause to be misrepresented, concealed, and hidden, the purpose of acts done in furtherance of the conspiracy.

E. Overt Acts

43. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to accomplish the objects of the conspiracy, the defendants and their co-conspirators committed, among others, the following Overt Acts, within the Middle District of Florida and elsewhere, which are described in substance below:

(1) On or about December 22, 1988, in St. Louis, Missouri, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFLI, and MAZEN AL-NAJJAR attended the first ICP Conference. Funds were solicited and raised for the PIJ and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and MAZEN AL-NAJJAR attempted to recruit one or more individuals to join the PIJ. (1)

(2) On or about May 3, 1989, Nidal Zalloum, a co-conspirator associated with the PIJ, carried out a knife attack on a main street in Jerusalem, killing two elderly men and wounding several other people.

(3) On or about July 7, 1989, a co-conspirator associated with the PIJ murdered approximately fourteen people and injured several others in an attack on a bus en route from Tel-Aviv to Jerusalem in Israel. Two United States citizens, Pella and Paul Fingersh, were passengers on the bus and were injured. A United States citizen, Rita Levine, was killed.

(4) On or about December 17, 1989, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA spoke at an ICP event and said that Israel responded to one language, the language of violence, death, blood and killing, and that would be the language their Jihad was going to adopt.

(5) On or about December 22-25, 1989, in Chicago, Illinois, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, MAZEN AL NAJJAR and Unindicted Co-Conspirator One attended the Second Annual ICP Conference. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA was introduced as the Imam of the Al-Qassam Mosque in the Gaza Strip and the spiritual leader of the PIJ. In a question and answer session during the conference, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI told a young man in the audience to meet him outside the conference if he wanted to discuss how weapons reached the Territories. During that same session, Unindicted Co-Conspirator One said that terrorism and terrorism alone was the path to liberation, and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA responded by telling him that they refused to consider their jihad to be equal to terrorism. (3)

(6) In or about December 28, 1990, in Chicago, Illinois, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA attended the Third Annual ICP Conference. (4)

(7) On or about April 7, 1991, in Cleveland, Ohio, Unindicted Co-Conspirator One introduced SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN as the head of the Islamic

Committee for Palestine [ICP], which was described as the active arm of the Islamic Jihad Movement in Palestine [PIJ], in North America. Unindicted Co-Conspirator One said the PIJ was referred to as the ICP for security reasons. Unindicted Co-Conspirator One also urged those in attendance to donate to the PIJ in memory of Nidal Zalloum, who stabbed four Jews, and the mujahid who took the bus and killed more than twenty Jews. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN then spoke, praised the Intifada, and praised individuals who had escaped from a prison in 1987 with the help of the PIJ and then killed many people. (This terrorist act is also referred to as the Battle of Al-Shujaiya.) SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN further mentioned the Gulf War and questioned why they stopped the protests against it. He then said they should continue the protests, continue to damn America, continue to damn Israel, and continue to damn the allies of America and Israel until death. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN also said that going to the Holy Land for Muslims was not a matter of going for a visit or tourism; rather, it was a matter of going for Jihad.

(8) On or about April 7, 1991, in Cleveland, Ohio, Unindicted Co-Conspirator One spoke after the speech of SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. Unindicted Co-Conspirator One requested that those people attending donate money and said the money was going to the PIJ and the Islamic Jihad movement would continue to spread from village to village. He then said that they hoped there would be a permanent ICP fund in Cleveland, Ohio for anyone who wished to donate to the PIJ. (6)

(9) On or about September 29, 1991, in Chicago, Illinois, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and Unindicted Co-Conspirator One attended a celebration of the fifth anniversary of the Battle of Al-

Shujaiya (the start of the first Intifada). GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT was introduced as the representative of the ICP in Chicago, Illinois. He said that there was no logic but the logic of Jihad -- the way to success was clear, the rifles must be raised in one direction, the chest of the enemy. He then advised the crowd that the enemy was in the desert of Kuwait and that coalition forces were going to kill their babies in Iraq. Further, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT criticized Israel for deporting Dr. Fathi Shiqaqi, and described him as a Muslim thinker and freedom fighter. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said Jews were damned; that Allah had made them monkeys and swine and damned them in this world and in the afterworld. (7)

(10) On or about October 11, 1991, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT concealed, in the section of an INS document requiring applicants to disclose memberships and organizations to which the applicant belonged, that he was a member of the PIJ and the ICP in the Chicago, Illinois area. (8)

(11) On or about December 9, 1991, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN purchased two official checks totaling $52,000 payable to GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT from funds drawn on the joint account belonging to SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB (hereinafter referred to as the "Al-Arian/Al-Khatib account") at NCNB Bank in Tampa, Florida.

(12) On or about December 27, 1991, in Chicago, Illinois, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, Omar Abdel Rahman ("The Blind Sheik"), ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, and GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT attended the Fourth Annual ICP Conference. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA advised the participants at the conference to focus on the armed struggle and that they should not fe:terrorisations of terrorism or extremism. (10)

SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN expressed concern about a PIJ split because he, MAZEN AL-NAJJAR and BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI had many years invested in the PIJ. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said that, if needed, he could arrange for the distribution of monies within the Territories. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA said he had recently spoken with Fathi Shiqaqi about the PIJ paying salaries to RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, MAZEN AL-NAJJAR, and SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN then stated that Fathi Shiqaqi had sent RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, MAZEN AL-NAJJAR, and SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH $50,000.00 in 1993. They also agreed the PIJ could afford to pay 400 martyrs' families $120.00 per month. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN then discussed the whereabouts of nearly $2,000,000 in missing PIJ money. Finally, they discussed RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH's statement that he (RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH) would be the best person to be in charge of PIJ finances. (31)

(42)(A) On or about January 22, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, who was in Tampa, Florida, had a telephone conversation with Fathi Shiqaqi, who was in Syria, in which they discussed the PIJ financial crisis and the concerns of PIJ members including SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, AND MAZEN AL-NAJJAR. (B) Later, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi which urged respect for the PIJ Shura Council while they debated the approval of the financial reforms proposed by SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. committee. They also stated that Fathi Shiqaqi, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB owned several homes which belonged to the PIJ. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN indicated that his initial efforts would be to account for the PIJ money in these homes. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN questioned BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI whether the PIJ had stores of gold and BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI replied that they did not; however, they had previously brought gold bullion into Jordan. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI disagreed over the extent to which Iran needed to be notified of the results of SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial audit of the PIJ. Finally, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said it would take three to four weeks to make the finance committee operational. (36)

(45) On or about January 24, 1994, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA called Unindicted Co-Conspirator Two at SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's home, who then arranged a three-way call with SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, who was overseas, and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN discussed several subjects: (a) ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's general support for SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's proposed financial reforms; (b) ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's recommendation to create a provisional command of five men in place of the Shura Council to manage the PIJ and its financial operations until a general conference was convened; (c) ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's suggestion that the provisional command members include Fathi Shiqaqi, Abu Tariq Ziyad, MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, Sheik Sayyed and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN disagreed with ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's suggestion because Sheik Sayyed was not a member of the Shura Council. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN recommended, instead, that Sheik Sayyed be replaced by BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI. Moreover,

SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he was not in favor of replacing the Shura Council with the command committee unless the existing Shura Council agreed. Finally, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA said the Iranians had intervened in the PIJ because of its financial difficulties.

(46)(A) On or about January 25, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to PIJ members requesting that the PIJ members vote "yes," "no," or "abstain from voting" regarding his three-part financial reform proposal. The facsimile mentioned disagreements within the PIJ and how they had affected the situation within the Territories. The facsimile further directed that all the PIJ monies were to be turned over to the Treasurer of the PIJ, MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, who would then transfer the money to an account in the names of SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and Fathi Shiqaqi. (40)

(49) On or about January 27, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI in which SAMI AMIN

(40.1)

SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN told MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB not to use numbers or names over the telephone. (41)

(52) On or about January 31, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI who was in England, in which they discussed SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI said MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB had abstained from voting and others in the "North" did not like it. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he wanted to centralize control of all PIJ funds into a committee. They agreed that within a year the PIJ would begin working with other organizations and, therefore, they needed to negotiate a solution with HAMAS. (42)

(53)(A) On February 3, 1994, co-conspirators caused a facsimile to be sent from WISE to SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN indicating: (a) that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal had carried by a vote of eight to two; (b) that the previous agreement made in Beirut was now annulled; (c) that Iran was informed of the new arrangements; (d) that within three weeks, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN would open accounts for PIJ funds; (e) that MAZEN AL-NAJJAR would send financial details within two weeks; (f) that all proposed budgets for 1994 must be sent to the committee within a month; (g) that there was to be an accounting of all PIJ funds and properties within a month; (h) that Fathi Shiqaqi would hold weekly meetings and send a weekly summary to PIJ members abroad; and (i) that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN would arrange for phone conferences every two weeks for members of the Shura Council to vote and discuss resolutions. (B) Later, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile containing an edited version of the facsimile he had received from WISE the day before. The revised facsimile indicated that it was issued by the "Secretary" of the Shura Council. (43)(A); (43)(B)

(54) On or about February 4, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, in which BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI stated he had not yet received the facsimile from SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he would send it later. They also discussed individuals who distributed money for the PIJ. (44)

(55) On or about February 7, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to Abu Jihad, describing the decision of the PIJ Shura Council to adopt SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal and declaring an annulment of the Beirut agreement and the three-person committee it had created. (45)

(56) On February 7, 1994, MAZEN AL-NAJJAR caused a wire transfer in the amount of $102,872.00 to be sent from Tampa, Florida to MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, the PIJ Treasurer, at Arab Bank, the Riad Al Sulh Branch, Beirut, Lebanon. (46)

(57) On or about February 7, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi about a meeting a PIJ representative recently attended in Iran regarding PIJ finances. Fathi Shiqaqi related that the PIJ would not back down from its position. (47)

(58)(A) On February 9, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile addressed to Ziyad Nakhaleh from Abu Jihad. The facsimile addressed the implementation of the new PIJ financial reforms and suggested that they delay turning over all PIJ assets to SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN for three months. (B) Later that day, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH in which they discussed the facsimile received earlier that day which recommended a delay in the implementation of the financial reforms proposed by SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN agreed that a tough response was necessary in order to send a clear message to the PIJ members and Iran. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN agreed to send a copy of his response to RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH for comment before disseminating it. (C) Shortly thereafter, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to Abu Jihad, which said the Beirut agreement was unconstitutional and there would be no postponement of the new PIJ financial reforms. It also reaffirmed that Iran was a strategic partner of the PIJ and was signed, "The Secretary". (D) SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN then had a telephone conversation with MAZEN AL-NAJJAR, in which they discussed PIJ members who were attempting to delay the new financial reforms, and that they should be dealt with strongly. (48)(A); (48)(B); (48)(C); (48)(D)

(59) On or about February 9, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH in which they discussed BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI's suggestion that they refrain from confronting the Iranians and telling them that disbursement of PIJ funds was none of their business. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI wanted the PIJ to save that as a final position. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI was worried that PIJ members would succumb to Iranian pressure because everyone in the PIJ needed money. RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN discussed strategies, one of which was to borrow $250,000.00 to $500,000.00 from HAMAS for two or three months. (49)

(60)(A) On or about February 10, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, who was in Syria. MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB opposed the new PIJ reforms because they were enacted to help Fathi Shiqaqi. (B) Later, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH. RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH discussed a conversation he recently had with MUHAMMED

TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, in which they discussed MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB's need for money for his region. (50)(A); (50)(B)

(61) On or about February 10, 1994, co-conspirators associated with the PIJ kidnapped and murdered Elan Soudri, a taxi cab driver, in an area of Israel near the Gaza Strip.

(62) On or about February 12, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI who was in England. They discussed: (a) having a general meeting of PIJ representatives; (b) Fathi Shiqaqi; and (c) the problems they were having with Abu Jihad and others who did not support the new PIJ financial changes. (51)

(63) On February 13, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from WISE of a newspaper article in which the Prime Minister of Israel accused the PIJ of trying to destroy the Oslo Peace Accord between Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO). The article also reported the recent murder of Elan Soudri by the PIJ. (52)

(64) On or about February 13, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with Abu Jihad, who was in Iran, in which they discussed Abu Jihad's rejection of the proposal contained in the facsimile he had previously received from SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. Abu Jihad said the PIJ faced severe problems and no one, including SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, had joined him while he had been working with the Iranians to obtain support for the PIJ. Abu Jihad also said he did not believe the Shura Council could solve the problems within the PIJ or with Iran. Abu Jihad named MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB as one of the problems. Abu Jihad asked

SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN what he was doing to retrieve the $350,000.00 from MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he would deal with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB. (53)

(65) On or about February 14, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, who was in England, in which they discussed the difficulty of obtaining money and whether they should borrow money. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI said money was so tight that PIJ members in England felt they would be better off dealing with HAMAS. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN expressed concern that Fathi Shiqaqi would make his own deal with Iran, and because the financial situation was so desperate, the PIJ should try to raise money by selling several of the houses they owned. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he would direct all PIJ members to surrender all PIJ assets. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI said he should start with Fathi Shiqaqi and the rest of the membership would follow. Finally, they discussed whether they had a copy of the signature of MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB so SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN could use it to reopen a bank account. (54)

(66) On February 17, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile which directed all PIJ members to: (a) count and report all PIJ money in their possession or in PIJ bank accounts; (b) count all loans to or from the PIJ; (c) report all real estate owned or purchased by the PIJ and state the purchase price and current value; and (d) report this information under oath. Salah Abu Hassanein quickly responded that the funds were for the poor people, and asked HATEM NAJI FARIZ if the amount he sent last time was $4,500.00 or $4,700.00." HATEM NAJI FARIZ said yes, and that the family used to belong to another organization but later joined the PIJ. HATEM NAJI FARIZ and GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT spoke about previous transfers of money to Salah Abu Hassanein in Gaza but that a fellow PIJ member in Gaza, Naim Nasser Bulbol, was in a desperate financial situation. (B) Later on the same day, HATEM NAJI FARIZ notified SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN that the banking account of GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT was being examined. (244)

(304) On or about September 6, 2002, HATEM NAJI FARIZ had a telephone conversation with three individuals, SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, and an employee of IAF. HATEM NAJI FARIZ discussed an American Muslim who had worked with Global Relief in Bridgeview, Illinois (GRF) and was applying for a job at IAF. HATEM NAJI FARIZ stated that since this guy was involved with GRF, it was better for IAF not to consider his application so they would not arouse the suspicions of law enforcement. HATEM NAJI FARIZ continued that the current situation was not helping and IAF was in excellent standing now and there was no need to have any questions on it as the scrutiny from the local community was enough. (246)

(305) On or about September 7, 2002, SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH had a telephone conversation with MAZEN AL-NAJJAR, who was in Lebanon. MAZEN AL-NAJJAR said he wanted to leave Lebanon and SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH told him to say hello to MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB. (246.1)

(309) On or about September 24, 2002, MAZEN AL-NAJJAR's wife, Fedaa Al-Najjar, had a telephone conversation with HATEM NAJI FARIZ. Fedaa Al-Najjar blamed her husband's treatment on his Palestinian heritage. HATEM NAJI FARIZ said that was true, but another reason was MAZEN AL-NAJJAR's association with terrorist organizations. He then instructed Fedaa Al-Najjar not to not discuss this further. HATEM NAJI FARIZ said the government is not even aware of the extent of MAZEN AL-NAJJAR's knowledge of terrorist groups. (317)(A) On or about November 9, 2002, HATEM NAJI FARIZ sent a facsimile to SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN of a proposed pledge form for donations to support the "Help the Orphans Program" sponsored by AMCN, seeking contributions for "50,000 food packages." Shortly after sending the facsimile, HATEM NAJI FARIZ had a telephone conversation with SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, during which SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN told HATEM NAJI FARIZ to change the word "orphans" to "needy families" because they didn't have 50,000 orphans in Palestine. Nevertheless, HATEM NAJI FARIZ insisted that the use of the word "orphans" was appropriate. (B) Shortly after the phone call, he sent a revised facsimile of the pledge form to SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN which changed the name of the program to "Help the Needy Families." (252.17); (252.18)

(318) On or about November 9, 2002, HATEM NAJI FARIZ and GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT had a telephone conversation about an AMCN fund-raising event conducted that evening in Florida. HATEM NAJI FARIZ and Salah Abu Hassanein discussed HATEM NAJI FARIZ sending $7,000.00 to Gaza but HATEM NAJI FARIZ said that Salah Abu Hassanein had to change the name of the organization in Gaza because the name "The Elehssan Society" was recognized as an organization that could not receive funds from the United States. They then agreed to change the name of the organization by adding the word "Birr" to "The Elehssan Society" and put that new name on receipts that Salah Abu Hassanein would send to the United States. HATEM NAJI FARIZ also instructed Salah Abu Hassanein that he could use the money however he wanted, but they needed to create a receipt for the donations so that HATEM NAJI FARIZ could gain the trust of the donors in the United States. HATEM NAJI FARIZ said that he had begun to use an organization that he established several years ago. Salah Abu Hassanein offered to give HATEM NAJI FARIZ the bank account number for The Elehssan Society, but HATEM NAJI FARIZ refused it and said he would transfer the money by the usual method. (B) Later that day, Salah Abu Hassanein sent a facsimile of a receipt confirming that the " Al Birr Wal-ehssan Society" had received funds from the Tampa Bay area. (C) On or about that same day, HATEM NAJI FARIZ, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN caused $7,000.00 to be transferred from AMCN through Middle East Financial Services to Salah Abu Hassanein in Gaza. (253); (253.0)

a/k/a "Abu Obayada,"

did combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other and with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to knowingly provide material support and resources, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2339A(b), to a designated Foreign Terrorist Organization, namely, the Palestinian Islamic Jihad (PIJ), all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2339B.

C. Means and Methods of the Conspiracy

3. To accomplish some of the purposes of the conspiracy, the defendants and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, used, among others, the following means and methods:

(a) The members of the conspiracy would and did use the WISE, ICP, and IAF offices as the North American base of support for the PIJ and to raise funds and provide support for the PIJ and their operatives in the Middle East, in order to assist its engagement in, and promotion of, violent attacks designed to thwart the Middle East Peace Process.

(b) The members of the conspiracy would and did work with PIJ and its leaders in coordinating its activities with HAMAS, including the possibility of HAMAS and PIJ reconciling their differences and engaging in joint terrorism operations.

(c) Beginning no later than 1988, the defendants were involved in PIJ, its financial operations and its ongoing violent efforts against the State of Israel. Operating out of the WISE, ICP and IAF offices, co-conspirators SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, MAZEN AL-NAJJAR and SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH would and did communicate through telephone calls and facsimiles with each other, other co-defendants, and other PIJ leaders including members of the PIJ Shura Council, and former PIJ Secretary General Fathi Shiqaqi (and succeeding Secretary General RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH), providing extensive advice on PIJ organization, structure, personnel and financing, and the relationship between PIJ and other violent Palestinian organizations.

(d) In their communications with each other and with other people, the defendants frequently relied on code words. For instance, they referred to PIJ as "the family," its operatives as "the youth" and the "brothers," HAMAS as "the club," Fathi Shiqaqi as "the Man," the West Bank and Gaza as "the inside" or the "the interior," and Iran, Lebanon, or Syria as "the North."

(e) Defendants SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI's, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH's advice and assistance to PIJ and Fathi Shiqaqi would and did include: (1) recommendations on financial issues that needed to be resolved by the PIJ "Shura Council;" (2) the identification of infighting within PIJ and HAMAS and the need to resolve their differences; and (3) raising funds within the United States for PIJ's use and benefit.

(f) SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN would and did provide assistance to PIJ activists who sought to enter and remain in the United States, including BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and MAZEN AL-NAJJAR, giving travel and immigration advice that involved false statements and fraudulent manipulation of United States immigration laws.

(g) Defendants SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, MAZEN AL-NAJJAR, SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH would and did communicate with each other, other co-defendants, and other known and unknown individuals to discuss the arrest of PIJ members, Fathi Shiqaqi's leadership decisions, how PIJ and Fathi Shiqaqi were a source of funds for WISE and ICP, the particular roles of the defendants within PIJ, whether HAMAS could be a source of funds for PIJ, the possibility of PIJ and HAMAS joining forces, and threats to the security of the PIJ and its members.

(h) At the WISE and ICP offices, the defendants would and did receive lists of names and bank account numbers of surviving family members of PIJ "martyrs" and detainees, spoke to each other about directions they had received from Fathi Shiqaqi and about particular financial transactions. They also received and circulated facsimiles of PIJ "Military Reports," which claimed responsibility for violent attacks, threatened the State of Israel, decried the arrests of PIJ members by the Palestinian Authority, and vowed to gut the Oslo Accords.

(i) The defendants' involvement in PIJ and HAMAS from 1994 forward would and did include logistical and financial assistance in terrorist activities. From the United States, the defendants would and did communicate with each other and with other PIJ operatives about specific PIJ and HAMAS terrorist attacks shortly after they occurred, detailing who committed them, who organized them, the total cost of the operations, and who had been arrested. They would and did raise and provide financial assistance to the surviving family members of the "martyrs" and detainees, thereby rewarding past terrorist acts and providing incentive for future terrorist acts.

(j) On or about January 23, 1995, the President issued Executive Order 12947, which declared a national state of emergency, designated certain organizations and individuals as threats to the Middle East Process and Specially Designated Terrorists, and barred all financial transactions with them. Among the groups/individuals designated as Specially Designated Terrorists were HAMAS, PIJ, Fathi Shiqaqi and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA. As a result, it became illegal for persons within the United States to engage in financial transactions with these designated terrorists and terrorist groups.

(k) Defendant RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH received a facsimile of a document describing Executive Order 12947 on January 25, 1995. On or about February 6, 1995, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN engaged in a telephone discussion during which he discussed the Executive Order and stated that it applied to people such as Fathi Shiqaqi, and operations outside the United States.

(l) Notwithstanding this prohibition and the defendants' awareness of it, the defendants would and did continue to provide services and support to PIJ, Fathi

Shiqaqi, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, and would and did continue to receive and send communications about Palestinian terrorism. During the spring of 1995, the defendants received facsimiles of articles glorifying attacks that claimed the lives of innocent people and demanding the release of HAMAS and PIJ terrorists being held in Palestinian prisons; they advised Fathi Shiqaqi and others about how to engage in effective propaganda while avoiding the scrutiny of United States and European law enforcement; and they communicated with persons in Iran and Syria about the possibility of procuring encrypted communications equipment to facilitate information sharing. They also continued to discuss PIJ recruitment, the interrelationship between PIJ and HAMAS and the possibility of joining forces.

(m) From early 1995 forward, in the face of increasing public scrutiny, the defendants and co-conspirators would and did rally around SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI and MAZEN AL-NAJJAR to protect their identity as high-ranking members of PIJ and to protect the PIJ operation at WISE and ICP. To accomplish this, they utilized codes and veiled communications, and expressed the need to be security conscious when speaking by phone. They also stated their concerns with being discovered by United States law enforcement. The defendant SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN continued to be involved in PIJ financial matters, although RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and Fathi Shiqaqi discussed certain problems caused by SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's public statements and the need for him to be more circumspect. Operating out of the WISE/ICP offices, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH continued the defendants' prominent role in PIJ propaganda efforts, speaking to BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI by phone about the need to respond to news articles critical of PIJ.

(n) On October 26, 1995, Fathi Shiqaqi was killed in Malta. Shortly thereafter, defendant RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, who had recently left his employment at WISE in Tampa and moved to Damascus, Syria, succeeded Fathi Shiqaqi as the Secretary General of PIJ. On November 27, 1995, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH was designated by the United States as a Specially Designated Terrorist under Executive Order 12947.

(o) In the aftermath of Fathi Shiqaqi's death and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH's ascension to Secretary General of PIJ, the defendant SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, in an effort to conceal his affiliation with PIJ, falsely denied that he was aware of RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH's association with, or activities on behalf of, PIJ while RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH was employed by WISE and ICP. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN further falsely stated that he only knew RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH as "Ramadan Abdullah" and that RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH was only engaged as a legitimate scholar while working at WISE and ICP.

(p) As a result of the negative publicity surrounding WISE, the defendant SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN reorganized the manner in which the defendants interacted with PIJ and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, although they did not cease their activities, including their logistical support for terrorism. The defendants would and did continue to communicate using coded language and veiled communications and explicitly referred to their need to be careful when communicating with one another.

(q) Throughout the remainder of the 1990's to the present, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH, HATEM NAJI FARIZ, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI and others would and did continue to engage in PIJ fund-raising and support activities in a calculated manner to conceal the nature of what they were doing and the source and recipients of the support. This fund-raising was done to further the goals of the PIJ in a manner designed to influence or affect the conduct of the Israeli and United States governments by intimidation or coercion, and to retaliate against government conduct.

(r) On or about October 7, 1997, the Secretary of State, pursuant to the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996, and Section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, designated PIJ and HAMAS as "Foreign Terrorist Organizations." As a result of this designation, it became illegal for any person within the United States or subject to its jurisdiction to provide material support or resources to PIJ and HAMAS.

(s) Notwithstanding this third announced legal prohibition against providing assistance to designated terrorist organizations and individuals, the defendants would and did continue their activities in support of PIJ. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN continued in his role as an advisor to PIJ, editing a Charter of the PIJ in 2000 and forwarding it to others. Following this designation, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and others would and did continue with fund-raising activities and their efforts to conceal what they were doing.

(t) Defendant SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH began to take on public appearance and fund-raising responsibilities on SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's behalf. SAMI

AMIN AL-ARIAN gave specific instructions to SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH on what meetings to attend and where to travel, and provided him money for this purpose.

(u) During this period, in an effort to take away attention from himself, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN increasingly relied on SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH, HATEM NAJI FARIZ and GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT and others to continue the fund-raising activity he had conducted himself in the past. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN also relied on other members of the conspiracy to carry out the logistical efforts necessary to transfer PIJ funds in and out of the United States. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN instructed the other co-conspirators to transfer funds overseas in the names of individuals, not organizations, in order to avoid detection by law enforcement.

(v) From in or about August through October 2000, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, MAZEN AL-NAJJAR and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN made false and misleading statements and caused to be submitted false and misleading documents during the course of MAZEN AL-NAJJAR's immigration proceedings in order to conceal his and their association with the PIJ. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI and SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH also conspired to submit a misleading statement from ABD AL AZIZ AWDA for purposes of these immigration proceedings. The co-conspirators also raised funds to provide financial assistance to MAZEN AL-NAJJAR in his effort to mislead the court about his affiliation with the PIJ, thereby conspiring to provide material support to the PIJ.

(w) Beginning no later than December 2001 and continuing into January 2003, in order to provide their fund-raising efforts for the PIJ with a cloak of legitimacy and conceal their ongoing relationship with the PIJ, defendants HATEM NAJI FARIZ, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT, and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN utilized the AMCN as a front to raise and transfer funds to the PIJ overseas.

(x) Beginning in the late 1990s, SAMEEH TAHA HAMMOUDEH utilized various methods to transfer funds from the United States to the Territories in order to evade detection by law enforcement. Such methods included, but were not limited to: (a) sending cash; (b) sending funds via courier; (c) sending funds via a money changer; (d) sending funds via the “hawalla” method; (e) sending funds to individuals for further distribution to organizations and other individuals; and (f) sending funds using a combination of the above-described methods.

The President of the United States, by virtue of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act ("IEEPA") (Title 50, United States Code, Section 1701 et seq.), was empowered to deal with unusual or extraordinary threats to the national security and foreign policy of the United States. The President dealt with unusual or extraordinary threats through Executive Orders which had the force and effect of law. A violation of an Executive Order was a criminal act.

- (a) dealing in the property or interests in property of a Specially Designated Terrorist, including the making or receiving of any contributions of funds, goods, services to or for the benefit of a Specially Designated Terrorist;
- (b) making a "charitable contribution or donation of funds, goods, services, or technology" to or for the benefit of a Specially Designated Terrorist;
- (c) any transaction for the purpose of, or which has the effect of, evading or avoiding, or which facilitates the evasion or avoidance of, the Terrorism Sanctions Regulations; and
- (d) any conspiracy formed for the purpose of engaging in a prohibited transaction.

Islamic Jihad as a Specially Designated Terrorist Organization, and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and Fathi Shiqaqi as Specially Designated Terrorists.
