Daniel Boyd says "check this out" and shows Witness an old ballast from a light fixture. Boyd says "it's an old, torn up ballast, it ain't no good. I want to hit it with an armor piercing round". Witness says that thing is solid and he did not know those things were that heavy. Boyd says "we will see what it can do with that. If it can do something with that, just imagine what it could do if you shoot one in a vest."

Boyd loads rifle and says "this is going to be a little bit stronger than the other one". Boyd begins firing and says "you see that stuff flying down there? That's a bullet man!" Boyd begins rapid firing and yells "Allahu Akbar". When he stops firing Boyd says "one day, inshallah, Allah's going to put me back". Boyd then says "I saw the 'deen', I saw the 'deen'. I love this round. This is the best round in the world". Witness says "brother, you just got me excited". Boyd states "You just don't know".

Boyd "hey dad, it came back, because we weren't using armor piercing rounds. It came back to us". Daniel Boyd said what came back? Young male says "a bullet, after it hit the metal". Zakariya Boyd explains to Witness that the bullet did not go through the main piece of metal. He says "see, that's what we want to try to shoot through. If the bullet gets through that, you're in good shape". As they walk back up to Daniel Boyd, young male says "it would have gone right through there if it had be an A.P. round, right dad?"

Daniel Boyd talking about the Mujahideen. Boyd says that in Waziristan, they don't even have a rifle, it's unbelievable. The imams are appointed by the government. During Ramadan, they have to get on a government raffle to be allowed to fast. The Chinese treat them terrible. Witness says, "inshallah, that is the first place we need to go". Boyd says, "well, you see that's how mujahideen think. They say, who are we? We are Allah's abadeen, we do what he wants. He shows us a place and allows us to establish abdeen and we do it there. We work out. That's how they are thinking in Afghanistan. You see, they don't care about Afghanistan, they care about the Sharia of Allah. That's why they told the Kashmiris, join with us and we'll take Kashmir like it was nothing. Kashmir is nothing, it is a valley and those Indians will run for their lives when the real mujahadeen come. You can't imagine man when one day the brothers for the Shahada are coming after you. If you do this man, you don't have a chance. He doesn't want to hear anything except you going down on the ground dead. He's hungry for shahada. The best way is how I told the brothers. If 2000 brothers come to the border to fight, after you go for two months, there will only be 20 of you left that are really there".
