Campus Notes

Campus Notes February/March 2006

Khushoo is so cool- For the 3rd time this year, Sidi Usama Cannon graced us with his presence. The seminar on prayer was held on Saturday (yes, it was an MSA weekend event that shocked us all!) and the high from his lecture lasted up until Jum'ah that week. Reach for that khushoo in your prayers...it is better than anything the dunya has to offer.

DT's up North- The Dawah Committee realizes that educating others about Islam is a year long task. After spring break dawah tables will be stationed up on North Campus. This is very much needed as Engineers don't know too much about a lot of things...that is made obvious at every eboard meeting.

Denmark Misses its Mark- Apparently some Danish think it's ok to be disrespectful in their comics. Apparently some Danish think they know what the beloved Prophet (peace be upon him) looks like. Apparently they are wrong. On so many levels.

Vigil for Jill- In observance of the American journalist from Ann Arbor being held in Iraq, the MSA participated in a candle lit vigil on the diag this week. The execution date set for Miss Carroll is February 26th.

AMER SULEIMAN is the Man!- The politically driven spoken artist, artistically challenged minds with logic and rhyme. The turnout was great! Moral: Continue to hold awesome events in an Angell Hall Auditorium.

Sisters Football?- It's official. Moz Girl Footie has been instated thanks to a certain saaf-more. "Bring trainers and a round football (soccerball)" and meet on Palmer's Field this weekend. No Boys Allowed!

And Amongst His Signs- Congratulations to...wait...you mean no one got engaged in the last month and a half??? Well isn't that strange...
