Ib: ... we heard good news about you.

Mu: What?

Ib: We heard good news about you in Windsor.

Mu: Who told you?

Ib: Nothing... A female called me...

Mu: Yes...

Ib: She donated.

[Background: Children's noises]

Mu: She called you?

Ib: And she donated.

[Background: Children's noises]

Mu: Yes...

Ib: I think that she is a Pakistani.

Mu: Yes.

Ib: Yes.

[Background: Children's noises]

Mu: What did she tell you?

Ib: She said, "By God, I just heard a sermon and I was very impressed and I would like to donate".

Mu: [Laughs] how much did she donate?

Ib: What do you think?

Mu: At least one thousand.

Ib: Eh...No.
[Background: Children's noises]

Mu: Well, sir. How much did she donate?

Ib: Five thousand dollars.

Mu: Uh!

Ib: [Laughs]

Mu: This is excellent, by God. Five thousand and I brought you twenty five thousand.

Ib: From Windsor?!

Mu: [Laughs].

Ib: Twenty five thousand from Windsor?!

Mu: [Laughs].

Ib: In God's name, are you serious? Twenty five thousand from Windsor?

Mu: Or what? Do I have...you know me, I mean am I the joking type?

Ib: Thank God, thank God, our Sheik, God willing.
[Background: Children's noises]

Ib: Hold on with me, please.. Mufid, hold on a little bit for me, please.

Mu: [Background] My child, I cannot find it, I am sorry. You have to install it again, my child, you have to install it.
[Background: Children's noises]

Ib: Are you serious Mufid?

Mu: Just a moment, just a moment, Ibrahim.

Ib: Yes, my dear. Haitham.

Mu: Just a moment. My brother!

Ib: Yes my brother!

Mu: I brought you with me...

Ib: Yes.

Mu: ... seventeen thousands from Windsor. These are cash by hand.

Ib: Cash by hand, seventeen thousand.

Mu: Someone donated five thousands, which he will mail, by mail or I don't know, he's gonna call or whatever, I mean, he's gonna do something.

Ib: [SC] Meaning...., Ok.

Mu: ... and I have four persons...

Ib: Um...

Mu: ... each one of them will donate four thousands, I mean a thousand, a thousand...

Ib: Fine...

Mu: ... all of them will mail them...

Ib: Um.

Mu: ... and there is also a few...you may say four or five of them five hundred dollars.

Ib: Okay?

Mu: Maybe more, I mean more than that, this, you may say is estimation, but what I have, which I brought for you is seventeen thousand.

Ib: And the five thousand makes it twenty two thousands.

Mu: And the five thousands...it goes up to, I mean it reaches thirty...

Ib: Yes.

Mu: If you want to take the woman into consideration, I mean, with the impact of the sermon...did she tell you the she was impressed [laughs]?

Ib: Yeah?

Mu: Did she tell you that she was impressed?

[Background: Children's noises]

Ib: Yes, she told me, "I just heard your sermon in the mosque, thank God, and... I took your pledge form and I am calling because I want to donate". She donated five thousand dollars.

Mu: Praised be God. Excellent, by God And, by the way...er. [To his daughter] Sarah, get lost from here [UI]...

[Children's noises].

Mu: ... so thank God there are many people I mean, and I know a lot of people who said: "We are not prepared, we do not have checks, we do not have so and so, we will send it by mail". We distributed..., I distributed a large amount.

Ib: Thank God, what about Boston?

Mu: What?

Ib: Boston?

Mu: Boston, between us, I feel that it would have been better for me if I did not go.

Ib: Why?

Mu: Did the guys tell you that they take fifteen percent?

Ib: Yeah.

Mu: Why didn't you tell me?

Ib: But that is how they always are, er...Boston.

Mu: But you must tell me, brother, so that I do not go there create problems with them...

Ib: No! Did you have a problem with them?

Mu: No, I did not do anything...

Ib: [SC] But you know that they will take the amount, they will send us the check.

Mu: No, I took the check from them, I did.

Ib: Did you take the check from them?

Mu: Of course.

Ib: You are really something, Mufid. Good, I will always send you to Boston.

Mu: What do you think I am coming to do?

Ib: Good, give me an amount that will also cheer me up.

Mu: I would not leave them.

Ib: [Laughs].

Mu: I collected twelve thousand dollars from them.

Ib: Twelve thousand? Have you already brought twelve thousand dollars?

Mu: No.

Ib: How much did they give you?

Mu: There are approximately four thousand in pledges.

Ib: Yes.

Mu: So, they kept those pledges...I do not even know their names.

Ib: Good, I will call Osama now.

Mu: And they took around eight thousands, so the total in cash that they had in hand is eight thousands.

Ib: Eight thousand dollars.

Mu: They took fifteen percent...

Ib: Fine...

Mu: ... so I brought around seven thousands with me.

Ib: Seven thousand dollars. Ok, thank God, thank God, you have become on top of the list, you.

Mu: Tell me College Station...

Ib: Yes?

Mu: You did not know what happened in College Station.

Ib: What happened in Co...

Mu: It turned out that the guys had been exhausted.

Ib: I know.

Mu: ... because you went the last week.

Ib: So...

Mu: But how much do you think we brought?

Ib: Five thousands?

Mu: What?

Ib: Five?

Mu: No, man! that is shameful, we do not talk about fives...

Ib: Ten?

Mu: Eleven thousand five hundred which I brought in cash with me.

Ib: You brought with you eleven thousand five hundred? I swear to God you are something, Mufid.

Mu: [laughs].

Ib: You deserve a kiss between your eyes.

Mu: [Laughs].

Ib: You deserve a kiss between your eyes.

Mu: Of course this is besides what will come in the mail.

Ib: God willing, may God recompense you well. May God recompense you well Sheik. Does this mean that we will see you tomorrow?

Mu: By the way, between you and me, I am exhausted.

Ib: Fine, we will see you tomorrow after the break-of-fast, God willing.

Mu: You see, I have arrived from Carrollton.

Ib: I know, by God, I know.

Mu: Who told you?

Ib: You told me, you said, "I have Carrollton on Sunday. I want to come for Carrollton".

Mu: By God, I went there, thank God, also...

Ib: How much did you collect in Carrollton?

Mu: I do not know, thirty five to forty thousands for them.

Ib: For the mosque, right.

Mu: Yes, for their mosque.

Ib: Well, good, may God recompense you well.

Mu: That's good, I mean, it is for their mosque; I mean money for them as they say.

Ib: May God recompense you well, Sheik, may God recompense you well.

Mu: May God...

Ib: We will see you then, God willing.

Mu: But by God, Ibrahim, it is a trip...a trip...tsk-tsk-tsk

Ib: God granted you acceptance, sheik.

Mu: God, glory to Him, protected me; the trip, the trip to Boston, man...

Ib: Um...

Mu: Exhausted me, exhausted me beyond exhaustion.

Ib: That is alright, Sheik!

Mu: What one...

Ib: You are capable of that and more, Mufid.

Mu: Er, God willing.

Ib: Capable of that and more, and our God will recompense you well; I mean, with those amounts, see how many families will pray for you, God willing.

Mu: By God, this is one's hope, Ibrahim.

Ib: May God recompense you well.

Mu: By God this is one's hope, what do you think, it is one's faith in God; Glory to Him.

Ib: May God recompense you...

Mu: ... Now, Windsor, we have received in our pocket twenty two thousands.

Ib: May God recompense you well, our Sheik.

Mu: Uh-uh?

Ib: U-huh.

Mu: Other than what will be sent, I mean I, phew! By God these are the blessings of God, glory to Him.

Ib: Praised be Go, praised be God.

Mu: By God, between you and me, the people are... good manners and politeness.

Ib: [Background] Fine our Sheik, let me go, I have to go to the airport, but I will see you tomorrow, God willing.

Mu: Fine, peace be upon you.

Ib: And peace by upon you, our Sheik.
