Organisation of The Islamic Conference

NEWS

President Obama Invites Ihsanoglu to visit the White House

Date: 07/04/2009 - View in: Arabic | French - 🖨 Print

The Secretary General of the Organization of the Islamic Conference (OIC), Prof. Ekmeleddin Ihsanoglu, had the occasion yesterday on the sidelines of the 2nd Forum of the Alliance of Civilizations (AoC), to have a brief encounter with US President, Mr. Barack Obama. The encounter took place during the official reception given by Turkish Prime Minister, Mr. Recep Tayyip Erdoğan, where the President reiterated to the Secretary General the willingness and readiness of the US Administration to explore areas of cooperation with the Organization of the Islamic Conference.

To this end, President Obama extended an invitation to Prof. Ihsanoglu to visit the White House in Washington D.C.

See also

- IRCICA launches the 8th International Calligraphy Competition
- Ihsanoglu attended the 2nd Annual Forum of the Alliance of Civilizations in Istanbul
- OIC Secretary General condemns Israel's ripping off Al Aqsa Mosque stones
- Message on World Health Day 2009
- OIC participates in the International Conference on Afghanistan
- Ihsanoglu to participate in the 2nd Annual Forum of the Alliance of Civilization
- Islamic Commission for Economic Cultural and Social Affairs kicks off in Jeddah "Joint Islamic action is key," emphasizes Ihsanoglu
- New Permanent Representative of Cameroun presents his credentials to the OIC Secretary General
- Second Humanitarian Organizations Conference kicks off in Libya under OIC aegis
- "The positive outcome of the Arab Summit serves OIC interests," asserts Ihsanoglu

Secretary General

http://www.oic-oci.org/topic_detail.asp?t_id=2087