[ ] at the direction of the leaders of the IIIT, ISNA and NAIT has traveled and met with individuals throughout the world and has determined that the entire organization is structured, controlled and funded by followers and supporters of the Islamic Revolution as advocated by the founders of the IKHWAN AL-MUSLIMEEN in Egypt. [ ] advised that until the ISLAMIC TREND OF NORTH AMERICA (ITNA) convention in September, 1988, in St. Louis the IKHWAN did not openly support or embrace the Iranian/Islamic Revolution; however, [ ] noted that IKHWAN leaders and members in attendance at the ITNA convention in St. Louis openly declared their support for the Islamic Revolution in Iran as lead by the AYATOLLAH KHOMEINI. [ ] based on extensive conversations and contacts with various IKHWAN members to include the current leadership of the IIIT, SAAR FOUNDATION and NAIT is convinced that this organization has a secret agenda which includes the spreading of the Islamic Revolution to all non-Islamic Governments in the world which does include the United States.

[ ] also advised that the IKHWAN uses various front groups for its political activities in the United States. In the United States [ ] stated that all Muslim organizations founded or under the direction of the IIIT leadership have been organized in what [ ] described as "the IKHWAN model." [ ] advised that under this organizational structure, the Muslim leadership of the IIIT solicits funds from foreign Governments, foreign members of their various organizations, members in the United States. The purpose of their soliciting funds is to organize and direct activities of Muslims in the United States and Canada to support the ultimate goal of the IKHWAN which is the Islamic Revolution. [ ] advised that the NAIT organization and its various affiliate and subsidiary Muslim groups are being utilized to recruit support for the Islamic Revolution and also influence United States Government policies towards Iran and other Muslim countries where the IKHWAN is active.

[ ] advised that the goals of the IKHWAN are clearly set forth in Chapter 6, the "Stages of the Mission," found in a book entitled, The Muslim Brotherhood, written by SAEED HAWWA. [ ] advised there are variations as to the interpretation of the six stages of the mission of the MUSLIM BROTHERHOOD/IKHWAN; however, [ ] stated that the ultimate goal is to enforce by "violence if necessary," the Islamic Revolution on all non-Islamic Governments. (A copy of Chapter 6 of instant book is attached hereto as Appendix A as provided by [ ] on August 17, 1988.)

On August 17, 1988, [ ] provided the following three documents concerning the goals and political activities of NAIT/ISNA and its various subsidiary and sponsoring Muslim organizations in the United States and Canada:

1. "Political Activity of Muslims in America"
(See Appendix E)

[ ] advised this was an unpublished and ultimately an unapproved (censored) historical study of political activity of Muslims in America. [ ] advised that it was prepared by an American Muslim and submitted to the leaders of the IIIT for eventual publication in an official ISNA publication. [ ] advised that it was not approved for publication because it too clearly identifies political activities and goals of the IIIT.

2. "Guidelines for Medium-Range Planning
Report of the Planning Committee
Washington, D.C.
December 22, 1986"
(See Appendix F)

[ ] advised that this document was prepared under the direction of JAMAL BARZINGI and was submitted to the ISNA executive counsel for their review, approval and implementation of long-range Muslim goals under the direction of ISNA in the United States and Canada. [ ] advised that this document was for internal use only and was not made available to the public or ISNA membership. This document in Section 3.6.1. entitled, "Political Action" clearly states that ISNA has as a political goal to exert influence on political decision making and legislation in North America which is contrary to their certification in their not-for-profit tax returns as filed both with the State of Indiana and with IRS.

3. "An Analysis of Religious Divisions in the Muslim Community of Toronto"
Written by S. H. AZMI
December 27, 1987
(See Appendix G)

[ ] provided this document on August 17, 1988, and stated that this is an example of the ongoing intrigue and evaluation by the IIIT leadership of the various subsidiary Muslim organizations they control. [ ] advised that they constantly direct and fund individuals who compile reports utilized by the IIIT leadership to determine the amount of financial support or their political support for the leadership of various Muslim organizations or mosques located in the United States and Canada. [ ] also advised that this document provides some insight to the internal politics in the various Muslim groups tied to the IIIT and its various United States Muslim organizations such as the MSA, NAIT, and ISNA.

[ ] advised that in addition to the internal political structure and organization of NAIT as controlled by the IIIT leadership that as members of the IKHWAN they are involved in organizing external political support which involves influencing both public opinion in the United States as well as the United States Government.

[ ] has, based on comments and statements by the current leadership of the IIIT, determined they are implementing Phase I of the overall six phase IKHWAN plan to institute the Islamic Revolution in the United States. (See Appendix A)

[ ] has advised that the IKHWAN is a secret Muslim organization that has unlimited funds and is extremely well organized in the United States to the point where it has set up political action front groups with no traceable ties to the IIIT or its various Muslim groups. They also have claimed success in infiltrating the United States Government with sympathetic or compromised individuals. [ ] advised that in Phase I of the Islamic Revolution as followed by the IKHWAN, the IIIT leadership has indicated that in this phase their organization needs to peacefully get inside the United States Government and also American universities. [ ] noted that the ultimate goal of the Islamic Revolution is the overthrow of all non-Islamic Governments and that violence is a tool and a part of the Islamic Revolution. [ ] noted that [ ] has stated that Muslims in the United States have to be prepared for Martydom meaning
