The Conspiracy

On or about May 16, 2017, within the District of Columbia, defendants Turgut Akar, Ismail Dalkiran, Servet Erkan, Tugay Erkan, Ahmet Karabay, Feride Kayasan, Lutfu Kutluca, Mustafa Murat Sumercan, Gokhan Yildirim, Ismail Ergunduz, Mehmet Sarman, Hamza Yurteri, Sinan Narin, Eyup Yildirim, Mahmut Sami Ellialti, Ahmet Cengizhan Dereci, Muhsin Kose, Yusuf Ayar, Harrettin Eren, and other persons whose identities are both known and unknown to the grand jury, did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree together to assault with a dangerous weapon with a shod-foot and to assault, in violation of 22 D.C. Code Sections 402, 404.

Objects of the Conspiracy

The principal goals and purposes of this conspiracy were for the members of the conspiracy, including defendants Turgut Akar, Ismail Dalkiran, Servet Erkan, Tugay Erkan, Ahmet Karabay, Feride Kayasan, Lutfu Kutluca, Mustafa Murat Sumercan, Gokhan Yildirim, Ismail Ergunduz, Mehmet Sarman, Hamza Yurteri, Sinan Narin, Eyup Yildirim, Mahmut Sami Ellialti, Ahmet Cengizhan Dereci, Muhsin Kose, Yusuf Ayar, Harrettin Eren, and other persons whose identities are both known and unknown to the grand jury, to: (1) assault and kick protesters who were assembled in front of the Turkish Chief of Mission Residence (hereinafter “CMR”) in Sheridan Circle; and (2) assault American law enforcement officers who attempted to stop the continued assault against the protesters.

Background of the Conspiracy

Defendants Turgut Akar (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Ismail Dalkiran (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and a tie), Servet Erkan (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Tugay Erkan (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Ahmet Karabay (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Feride Kayasan (a Turkish security official wearing a suit), Lutfu Kutluca (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Mustafa Murat Sumercan (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Gokhan Yildirim (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Ismail Ergunduz (a Turkish security official wearing khaki pants and an olive green military-style jacket), Mehmet Sarman (a Turkish security official wearing khaki pants and an olive green military-style jacket), Hamza Yurteri (a Turkish security official wearing khaki pants and an olive green military-style jacket), Sinan Narin (a U.S. citizen), Eyup Yildirim (a U.S. citizen), Mahmut Sami Ellialti (a Canadian citizen), Ahmet Cengizhan Dereci (a Canadian citizen), Muhsin Kose (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Yusuf Ayar (a Turkish security official wearing a suit and tie), Harrettin Eren (a Turkish security official wearing khaki pants and an olive green military-style jacket), and other persons whose identities are both known and unknown to the grand jury, were members and associates of a group of political allies—security personnel and supporters of Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan—who banded together in the District of Columbia on May 16, 2017. The members and associates of this group were bound together by their aversion towards a group of persons who oppose Mr. Erdoğan, support pro-Kurdish political parties in Turkey and Syria, and are of ethnic Kurdish background from Iran, Iraq, Syria, and Turkey (collectively, the “anti-Erdoğan protesters”). The anti-Erdoğan protesters had assembled earlier in the day outside of the White House near the 1600 block of Pennsylvania Avenue N.W, adjacent to Lafayette Square. The anti-Erdoğan protesters assembled to voice their unfavorable opinion of Mr. Erdoğan and his administration based on Mr. Erdoğan’s treatment of Kurdish people in Turkey and Mr. Erdoğan’s policies towards Kurds in Iran, Iraq, and Syria. The anti-Erdoğan protesters chose to demonstrate on May 16, 2017, when Mr. Erdoğan would be visiting the White House to meet with U.S. President Donald Trump. In anticipation of the protest, the anti-Erdoğan protesters obtained a valid permit from the U.S. National Park Service on May 4, 2017.

The anti-Erdoğan protesters peacefully demonstrated outside of the White House while Mr. Erdoğan met with President Trump. After Mr. Erdoğan’s meeting with President Trump concluded, Mr. Erdoğan traveled to the CMR. The anti-Erdoğan protesters changed their protest venue, deciding to protest across from the CMR within Sheridan Circle, to continue to voice their opposition to the Turkish President. Approximately ten to twenty anti-Erdoğan protesters were gathered in the vicinity of Sheridan Circle prior to Mr. Erdoğan’s arrival at the CMR. The anti-Erdoğan protesters were carrying signs and chanting with the use of bullhorns. Some of the signs advocated for the release of Selahattin Demirtaş, the imprisoned Zaza Kurdish leader of the Turkish pro-Kurdish People’s Democratic Party, or HDP. Others carried red, yellow, and green (the colors of the Kurdish people which are banned in Turkey) flags and scarves to indicate their support and/or affiliation with the Kurds.

The members and associates of the conspiracy were pro-Erdoğan civilian supporters, Turkish security personnel, and staff members from the Turkish diplomatic delegation. The Turkish security personnel were clad in suits or khaki pants, olive green military-style jackets, and combat boots. The Turkish security personnel wore earpieces and some were armed with firearms. The members and associates of the conspiracy significantly outnumbered the anti-Erdoğan protesters, growing in size as the protest continued. The members and associates of the conspiracy both vocally and physically opposed the presence of the anti-Erdoğan protesters, yelling threats at and attacking the anti-Erdoğan protesters. After a brief confrontation between the groups and continued demonstration by the anti-Erdoğan protesters, during which time law enforcement attempted to create a physical barrier to restrain the members and associates of the conspiracy, the members and associates of the conspiracy rushed the anti-Erdoğan protesters in a nearly simultaneous, coordinated throng. The members and associates of the conspiracy used threats and physical violence—intensely kicking at protesters—to dispel the anti-Erdoğan protesters, attack the anti-Erdoğan protesters, and blatantly ignore American law enforcement commands to cease the violence. The members and associates of the conspiracy attacked the anti-Erdoğan protesters because of their opposition to Mr. Erdoğan, their support of the HDP, their support of ethnic Kurds, and their belief that the protesters were ethnically Kurdish.
